2017 - A Way Forward

HAPPY NEW YEAR to all! Just as you are embarking on the serious business of foaling and breeding at your farms, we at New York Thoroughbred Breeders begin the year by focusing on two of our most important annual rites: kicking off our annual membership renewal drive and ramping up work on the legislative challenges that our industry will face in the coming year.

When you receive your annual NYTB membership renewal notice in the mail, I urge you to remember that NYTB—which is the only organization solely dedicated to giving New York breeders a voice in Albany—could not work full-time and year-round on behalf of New York's breeding program without the support of its members. Moreover, in 2017 NYTB will be more active in Albany than ever.

For the first time NYTB has secured a seat at the table this year for the budget process, which puts us in a much better position to advance breeders' interests proactively rather than having to deal with issues after the fact. Equally important, our organization is slated to participate directly in upcoming negotiations about the New York Racing Association's re-privatization, which will have ramifications for all. Meanwhile, NYTB is fully prepared once again to assist the Finger Lakes horsemen in ongoing negotiations with representatives of Delaware North and del Lago Casino involving purse protection.

There is one more extremely high-profile item on NYTB's legislative agenda. We are committed to seeking relief/protection for the Fund and purses from the effects of a new relationship between Genting and Nassau OTB. Last year Genting's Resorts World re-assigned 460 of its VLT machines to Nassau OTB, which means that these machines no longer contribute to racing or breeding revenue in the same way. Conceivably, in the coming year the number of machines could climb to 1,000. NYTB will do everything in its power to make sure breeders do not lose out in this new arrangement. Finally, in addition to monitoring any other emergent issues impacting breeding and racing over the course of the upcoming legislative session, NYTB will seek to renew, for the seventh consecutive year, the essential "Fund Caps" bill, which allows the Fund to pay 65% of its revenue to breeders' awards.

To come full circle, once again I urge you to support all this work by renewing your membership today. NYTB, for its part, strives to reward members with valuable benefits, including free clubhouse admission to Finger Lakes and the NYRA tracks, a free subscription to the monthly New York Breeder magazine, the annual New York Stallion Register, free classified advertising on the NYTB website, and discounts on various services. The "member benefits" page on our website contains a full listing. Renew early to avoid letting these benefits lapse or expire in the weeks ahead.

So, please complete and return the renewal notice you will receive in the mail, use the membership application included in this month's issue (see page 8), or renew easily and quickly online at www.nytbreeders.org. Also, you should alert new clients that, as participants in the New York breeding program, their best interest is served by joining the organization.

Until next time, I wish you the best of luck with your mares and foals, and, once again, extend my personal thanks for your continued support. 🐾

NYTB BOARD ELECTION RESULTS 2016

The New York Thoroughbred Breeders Inc. (NYTB) concluded its annual board election Dec. 15, 2016. This year NYTB members voted to fill five seats on the board for candidates to serve two-year terms from Jan. 1, 2017, through Dec. 31, 2018.

THE WINNING CANDIDATES ARE:

Dr. Scott Ahlschwede
Lois Engel
Thomas J. Gallo III
Vivien G. Malloy
Mallory Mort

The six remaining members of the NYTB board will be serving the second year of two-year terms in 2016:

Chester Broman
Seth Gregory
Michael Lischin
Joanne Nielsen
Suzie O'Cain
Dr. Joan M. Taylor

Whittemore, Downen & Ricciardelli, LLP, an accounting firm from Queensbury, N.Y., administered the NYTB board elections by validating the eligibility of all voters, distributing the ballots and receiving the completed ballots directly from members of the association. The firm then tabulated and certified the election results. Whittemore, Downen & Ricciardelli, LLP reported the official results to NYTB in a letter dated on Dec. 15, 2016.

NYTB STALLION SEASON AUCTION JAN. 9-11

New York Thoroughbred Breeders Inc. will conduct its annual Stallion Season Auction starting Monday, Jan. 9 at 9 a.m. and ending Wednesday, Jan. 11 at 6 p.m. The auction will be held online using the Starquine bidding platform (www.Starquine.com). Participants must register prior to bidding. All bids will be subject to the rules and conditions of the auction. Each season's conditions will be posted.

Neck of the Moon Hits the Beach

Hidden Brook Farm's multiple stakes-placed Neck of the Moon nailed down her first stakes score Dec. 17 at Gulfstream Park when she won the $100,000 South Beach Stakes, a 71/2-furlong two-turn turf contest.

A consistent performer—she'd hit the board in 16 of 21 starts prior to the South Beach including four stakes-placings—the 6-year-old daughter of More Than Ready had found her initial stakes victory elusive.

"We spotted her well all season and she just had very unfortunate trips," said trainer Chad Brown before the race. "A couple of those races she could have won. She always gives her best."

Neck of the Moon was last seen finishing second by a length in the one-mile River Memories Stakes Nov. 5 at Woodbine.

In the South Beach Neck of the Moon saved ground early before making her way between horses on the far turn. She found clear running room at the head of the lane, where she passed three rivals under a hand ride, then outgamed Sandiva by a neck in 1:31.

KENNY MARTIN/COGLIANESE PHOTOS

Neck of the Moon

"Today she got the trip she needed," Brown said after the race. "We told (jockey) Paco (Lopez) a few things about her, particularly her affinity to get outside if possible in a big field, and he executed it perfectly. I'm proud of the filly for the effort she gave."

Brown is unsure whether Neck of the Moon, a $402,312 earner, will continue racing or prepare for life as a broodmare with her black-type win under her belt. "I'll speak to the management at Hidden Brook and see what happens."

Bred by Stone Bridge Farm near Gansevoort, where she was foaled, Neck of the Moon is out of stakes-placed Kentucky-bred Cotopaxi, by With Approval, who was purchased by Stone Bridge owner Jeffrey Tucker at the 2006 Keeneland November sale for $120,000. She has produced four stakes winners (three in Mexico) and one other winner from five foals to start and relocated to Mexico in 2010.

2016 LEADING SIRES IN NEW YORK

For stallions that stand, will stand, or stood (deceased) in New York (stallions that are dead or exported prior to 2012 are excluded), and have runners in North America. Listed below are all available statistics for the Northern Hemisphere through December 18, 2016. As supplied to Blood-Horse by The Jockey Club Information Systems Inc., include adjusted money from Japan, Hong Kong, and Singapore. Adjusted earnings are put on par with average North American earnings from the previous year. For example, the average North American purse in 2015 is $21,782 or 50% of the 2015 average purse in Japan. To put earnings on par, all Japanese progeny earnings are multiplied by 50% before being credited to a sire's progeny earnings. Hong Kong earnings are adjusted by 17%; Singapore by 57%. Current year stakes winners include all N.H.-black-type stakes results from all available countries. *Fool counts include Southern Hemisphere. Cumulative stakes winners includes all countries. (A ¶ indicates a sire represented by his first crop to race).

*AVERAGE-EARNINGS INDEX and COMPARABLE INDEX: Lifetime AVERAGE-EARNINGS INDEX indicates how much purse money the progeny of one sire has earned in relation to the average earnings of all runners in the same years; average earnings of all runners in any year is represented by an index of 1.00; COMPARABLE INDEX indicates the average earnings of progeny produced from mares bred to one sire, when these same mares were bred to other sires. Only 32% of all sires have a lifetime AVERAGE-EARNINGS INDEX higher than their mares' COMPARABLE INDEX.

new stallions in New York for 2017

BY EVAN HAMMONDS

Effinex at Questroyal North

SKIP DICKSTEIN

LAST YEAR'S GOLD RUSH of nine new stallions to the New York market has slowed this year to a more manageable six, but it's not a matter of volume. With increased interest in the New York breeding program, the stallion operations have had to "up their game," and they continue to do so with the new players of 2017.

Two of the new stallions have proved their mettle against the best of the best while being grade I stakes winners. Another is by War Front, who, along with Tapit, has the most sought-after bloodlines in the commercial weanling and yearling market. The versatile runner has a propensity for throwing both turf and dirt stars. There is also a member of Uncle Mo's exciting first crop and a pair of hard-knocking New York-breds by Northern Afleet and Warrior's Reward added to the mix.

The highest-priced incoming stallion outside of Central Kentucky is the strapping 5-year-old Effinex. He's also at the head of the list as far as earnings—$3,312,950—and introductory stud fee—$10,000. Effinex takes up residence at Questroyal North near Stillwater. He's no stranger to New York in that he was bred here and he's last year's New York-bred horse of the year.

"Effinex is the most accomplished sire to start his career in New York, hands down," said Barry Ostrager, the owner of Questroyal North. "When a horse is a multiple graded stakes winner of nearly $3.5 million and has beaten Honor Code, Tonalist, Hoppertunity, and Melatonin—the very best handicap horses in America and has run 11 triple-digit Beyers, there is no question about his authenticity.”

Effinex, by Mineshaft, made 17 starts in graded stakes company, and he won or placed in nine of them. His signature win came in the 2015 Clark Handicap (gr. I). He also won the Oaklawn Handicap (gr. II), back-to-back Suburban Handicaps (gr. II, 2015-16), and the Excelsior Stakes (gr. III).

In the 2015 Breeders’ Cup Classic (gr. I), Effinex was second to Triple Crown winner and Horse of the Year American Pharoah.

Dr. Russell Cohen, who bred Effinex and raced him in the name of his family’s Tri-Bone Stables, said he had been negotiating with some of the country’s biggest stud farms and had many offers from outside the country, but in the end he wanted to keep the horse close to home.

“Part of it is sentimental,” said Cohen, a native New Yorker and a practicing veterinarian for 30 years. “He is not just a New York-bred, he’s third generation. And despite all he’s done for me, I owe him more. I want him here where I can keep an eye on him.”

Cohen said Effinex attracted major breeders in both New York and Kentucky.

“His female family—the Best in Show family—is the most productive of the great matriarchal families, in my humble opinion,” Cohen said. “A lot of great sires have come out of that family.”

Effinex is out of E Dubai’s stakes-winning daughter What a Pear. Effinex’s fourth dam is Best in Show.

Cohen also believes Effinex is attractive to breeders because he never trained on medication with the exception of Lasix while racing 28 times in three seasons.

peted with and defeated stallions in Kentucky standing for $40,000 and $50,000 without all the transactional expenses of shipping.”

Uncle Mo has been nothing short of sensational with his first crop of runners that has produced 22 stakes winners. The cast includes last year’s champion 2-year-old male and this year’s Kentucky Derby Presented by Yum! Brands (gr. I) winner Ny-

“That soundness element is really important to racing,” he said. “This is a dynamic, durable, and fast horse.”

“As spectacular as the New York program has been, there has been a perceived void, and the owners of high-quality mares have shipped them to Kentucky to be bred, believing—I think wrongly—that there were no New York stallions of equal quality,” Ostrager said. “With the arrival of Effinex, resident mares can now be bred to a stallion that successfully comquist. Nyquist enters stud this year for $40,000 at Darley near Lexington and another son, Outwork, will stand at WinStar Farm in Kentucky for $15,000.

From that same first crop comes Laoban to Sequel Stallions near Hudson for an entry fee of $7,500.

Laoban will be syndicated by a joint venture between Southern Equine Stables, Sequel Thoroughbreds, McMahon of Saratoga Thoroughbreds, and Woodford Thoroughbreds.

Laoban

A $260,000 Keeneland September yearling sale grad, Laoban raced for McCormick Racing and Southern Equine Stable and was always held in high regard. Despite the fact the dark bay or brown colt was still a maiden he made five attempts in graded company before earning his first win with a bang.

With Jose Ortiz up, Laoban scored a wire-to-wire victory in Saratoga's nine-furlong Jim Dandy Stakes (gr. II), topping stakes winner Governor Malibu and classic-placed Destin.

Laoban is the second foal out of the New York stakes-placed Chattertown, who is a half to two stakes winners and is out of a stakes-winning half sister to the dam of three-time grade I winner I'm a Chatterbox.

"He looks just like Uncle Mo. He's gorgeous," said Sequel Stallions' Becky Thomas. "The mares that will be presented to him will be second-to-none as we intend for him to follow in the footsteps of current leading freshman sire Mission Impazible. The expansion of the New York breeding program has allowed many more opportunities as New York-breds have increased substantially in value on the racing front as well as in the sale ring. Laoban offers a unique breed back option for our Kentucky clients as well as a perfect reason for our New York breeders to stay home."

"Outstanding physical, son of a freaky sire, speed to burn, and a great ownership group," said Matt Lyons, vice president and general manager of Woodford Thoroughbreds; a no-brainer!"

New York's other grade I winner is V. E. Day, who scored in the 2014 Travers Stakes (gr. I). He will stand for $6,500 at Waldorf Farm near North Chatham.

"He is shipping back to the U.S. from France and will take up stud duties next year at Dr. Jerry Bilinski's Waldorf Farm," said Jonathan Miller, representing owner Magalen Bryant. "We are excited to stand the leading North American money earner of a grade I stakes on dirt by English Channel."

Day had won Saratoga's Curlin Stakes in a dramatic three-horse finish over Charge Now and Protonico.

both at Belmont. Third in three of four starts as a 5-year-old in France, he retires with earnings of $1,044,061.

V. E. Day was bred by Brad Kelley's Bluegrass Hall and is from the Deputy Minister mare California Sunset, dam of five other winners. Her dam, Our Dear Sue, is a sister to champion grass horse Sunshine Forever.

ginia Derby (gr. IIT) and in 2014 took the Louisville Handicap (gr. IIIT). He finished second in the grade I Man o' War Stakes at Belmont Park in 2015. He retires with six wins and 10 placings out of 30 starts and with earnings of $1,068,925.

"He is very correct. He's got a great body—good shoulder, good hip," said Erin Robinson, stallion director for Rockridge. "If he throws the physical type that he is, he's going to have some wonderful-looking babies. Even though he ran on turf, he doesn't look turf-y. He probably takes more after War Front in general who can throw both dirt and turf horses. He's got a lot of scope, and he's going to be a very nice addition to New York."

War Dancer was bred in Kentucky by Cherry Valley Farm and Stuart S. Janney III. He is out of the grade II-placed winner Deed I Do, a daughter of Alydeed, who produced seven winners from eight foals of racing age. "He retired sound," Robinson said. "His mother was a dirt runner; she was a good racehorse. There are a lot of War Front sons out there at stud...but there are only three who have won more than $1 million and he's one of them."

Four-time stakes winner Fiddlers Afleet is listed as a first-year stallion at Blue Star Thoroughbreds. His fee will

“ V. E. Day is a beautiful chestnut colt with a gorgeous shoulder and a stride that covered immense ground”

— Jimmy Jerkens

"V. E. Day is a beautiful chestnut colt with a gorgeous shoulder and a stride that covered immense ground," Jerkens said. "He ascended the 3-year-old ranks in early summer in leaps and bounds as was evident by his big wins in the Curlin and Travers. He was absolutely sound and had a mind to match. He will always be one of my favorites."

At 4 V. E. Day finished second in the Brooklyn Invitational Stakes (gr. II) by a neck to Coach Inge and in the Temperance Hill Invitational Stakes, yearling sale graduate, V. E. Day was purchased by Chester Stables, agent, for $135,000 at the 2013 Ocala Breeders' Sales Co.'s March sale.

Long on experience—Fiddlers Afleet made 40 starts in a six-season racing career—the New York-bred son of Northern Afleet won from 5 1/2 to nine furlongs.

As a 2-year-old, he ran second to Haynesfield in the Damon Runyon Stakes at Aqueduct. At 3, after spending the early part of his campaign in Southern California, he returned to New York to win Saratoga's Albany Stakes, then stepped back outside restricted company to win Remington Park's $400,000 Oklahoma Derby. He won two additional stakes, placed in five more, and earned $773,128.

American Tango, the dam of Fiddlers dlers Afleet, won Ellis Park's six-furlong Magnolia Breeders' Cup Stakes in just her fourth career start. The daughter of Quiet American placed in two other stakes and compiled a 5-4-2 mark in 31 starts. American Tango is the second dam of $350,030-earner Afternoon Tango, a three-time stakes winner in Louisiana.

Philip Birsh's homebred Tencendur sets up shop at Mill Creek Farm near Saratoga. The son of Warrior's Reward will stand for $2,500.

Out of the Hennessy mare Still Secret, Tencendur made eight of his starts around two turns, breaking his maiden second time in the mud at Aqueduct going a mile and 70 yards in January of his 3-year-old year.

By April of that year he was grade I-placed, running second to Frosted (who will stand for $50,000 in 2017) in the TwinSpires.com Wood Memorial Stakes (gr. I). That set the colt up for a run at the Kentucky Derby Presented by Yum! Brands (gr. I), where he finished unplaced behind Triple Crown winner American Pharoah.

Tencendur was able to bounce back in his next start, dropping a nose decision to Mr. Z in the $500,000 Ohio Derby.

Tencendur made one start at four this summer at Saratoga and retires with $368,500 in earnings and a 1-3-1 mark. 🐾

Trinity Farm strikes open stakes company twice with state-bred Macagone

FOR THE HUSBAND AND WIFE TEAM of Jaye and Tom Egan, the majority owners of Trinity Farm, breeding and racing horses in the Empire State has not only been an intense passion, but a rather personal extension of their lives together.

This past August, Jaye, who is bravely battling a serious illness, gathered her strength and led the couple's 5-year-old homebred Macagone (by Artie Schiller) into the winner's circle at Saratoga Race Course, one of her favorite places, after an allowance optional claiming victory on the grass. Macagone, who is out of the Skip Away mare Isabel Away, has also shone on the Aqueduct turf by taking the $100,000 Danger's Hour Stakes in April and the $150,000 Artie Schiller Stakes (named for his sire) in November, both in open company.

"Jaye is one of the most optimistic people in the world," said Tom Egan, her husband of 21 years. "She could light up a room with that optimism. One day we hope to have a horse with her incredible determination."

Tom Egan's journey to becoming a breeder/owner was seeded during the 1970s when he started as a hotwalker for the powerful Phipps Stable, working beneath trainer John Russell and assistant Bruce Johnstone. During that time Egan had the opportunity to be hands-on with a pair of potent turf runners—Landscaper and Fluorescent Light.

Tom and Jaye Egan (at right) with Liam and Mary Egan

Years later Egan would go on to pass the bar exam and become a practicing lawyer. He saved his money and eventually approached trainer H. James Bond about getting into the racing game.

“I’ve got one-hundred thousand dollars. I understand that we’re not going to find a Kentucky Derby horse for that. But I’m looking for a horse good enough to win an allowance race in New York,” Egan told Bond upon their initial meeting.

Equally as excited about the prospects of becoming a first-time owner, Jaye asked her husband, “What exactly are we looking for physically in a horse?”

“We want a horse that looks like an athlete,” replied Egan. “One that seems enthused about being on the track.”

Jaye took that advice to heart, and along with help from Bond-associate Paul Smith, the pair assessed yearlings together at the 2003 Keeneland September yearling sale. It was Isabel Away who caught Jaye’s eye, and the filly was acquired for $60,000.

She won just once from 11 starts, finishing second four times and third once. But in her lone win, the ever-optimistic Jaye saw something in the filly’s young French-born rider Julian Leparoux, who had notched his fourth victory in the U.S. aboard Isabel Away.

“I remember Jaye showing Julian the photos of all the famous jockeys on the walls in a Keeneland restaurant,” said Tom Egan. “She told him, ‘Keep working hard. That’s going to be you one day.’”

Though Isabel Away, who was prone to streaks of nastiness with her handlers and owners—the filly once bit Jaye’s arms causing a painful injury—wasn’t overly impressive on the racetrack, she eventually excelled in the breeding shed, producing Birchwood Road (by Pure Prize) in 2010 ($223,800 in earnings) and Macagone in 2011.

Pure Prize (by Storm Cat) was bred and raced by the Phipps Stable.

“After getting my start working for the Phipps, It felt special to breed to one of their horses,” said Egan. “Almost like a circle had been completed.”

The Egans’ partners in Trinity Farm are also named Egan—Liam and Mary. The couples are not related, though both are of Irish-heritage and can trace their roots to Galway.

In fact, Liam, who speaks Gaelic, is responsible for suggesting the name Macagone, (pronounced Ma-kay-gun) which translates as “son of Egan.”

It was a very meaningful name to Tom Egan, who had lost his adult son, Jes (from a previous marriage), to brain cancer just a few months before the colt was foaled in upstate New York.

“I’ll always make the connection between the two of them, and Macagone reminds me of Jes in so many ways,” said Egan. “It’s one reason why this horse will always be special to me.”

Former New York Racing Association track announcer Tom Durkin had been mispronouncing Macagone’s name during race calls. So when Tom Egan learned that Durkin would soon be picking up a jacket at a tailor shop on Broadway in Saratoga, he left a handwritten note for the announcer with the shopkeeper on how to pronounce it correctly.

Having their horses succeed in open company has always been a major goal for Trinity Farm. But Macagone, who had been a one-way speed type for most of his career, may have learned his most valuable racing lesson in the Mohawk Stakes for New York-breds, which had been taken off the turf and contested over a sloppy Belmont Park main oval in late October.

“I always wondered if Macagone could come from off-the-pace. I think the Mohawk had a lot to do with teaching him that. He didn’t come out of the gate well. He took a lot of kick-back in that race. But mentally he survived it. I think he learned something important that day,” said Egan.

Heading into the Artie Schiller, Macagone was expected to be one of a crush of horses battling for the early lead, part of the reason the gelding was 34-1. But jockey Kendrick Carmouche, who unexpectedly found himself aboard when Chris DeCarlo was thrown from his mount a race earlier, was able to rate the Bill Mott trainee in fourth-position. After a near perfect stalking trip in the one-mile event, the pair launched a six-wide rally turning for home, before striking the lead in mid-stretch and holding sway late for a three-quarter-length victory in 1:36.66.

It was Macagone’s seventh win from 23 starts, increasing his earnings to $462,167.

The gelding is currently scheduled to winter in Florida and take a break from racing.

It’s one reason why Jaye and Tom Egan moved from Connecticut to Palm City, Fla., back in 2005. Their runners spend every winter at Don Brown’s 60-acre farm, near Payson Park, rejuvenating for the spring schedule ahead beneath the steady hands of exercise rider Rudy Wolfendale. It’s a relaxed time in which Tom Egan often tends to his horses as a self-appointed groom.

Though Macagone is by a Kentucky-based sire, there was never any doubt in Egan's mind that he wanted his runner to be a New York-bred.

"It's a very attractive breeding program in New York," said Egan. "It doesn't make any sense not to have a New York-bred. Why wouldn't you? Breeding to a Kentucky stallion and then coming back to New York made all the sense in the world."

In 2014 Isabel Away produced a New York-bred full brother to Birchwood Road named Red Knight. The colt trained sensationally at Saratoga this summer, and the Egan clan is anxiously anticipating his debut. She also has a 2015 colt by Colonel John, which Tom Egan plans on naming Celtic Knight.

Currently, Isabel Away, who is boarded at Keane Stud, has a weanling filly by Freud and is in foal to Freud. It is a pairing that Tom Egan couldn't be more pleased about.

"Freud is a solid sire," said Egan. "I think one day he could absolutely be the equal to his brother (Giant's Causeway). Right now one of the main differences between the two is the quality of mares they get. If Freud was getting the same number of grade I-winning mares, his runners and stats would be even more impressive."

How did the Egan Clan and Trinity Farm, which consists of one broodmare and four runners, wind up with Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott?

Earlier in their racing careers both Macagone and Birchwood Road were ably trained by Michelle Nihei, who mostly operates out of Palm Meadows in Florida. Nihei, the consummate professional, upon being informed that Trinity Farm desired a New York-based trainer, actually lobbied Mott via a pair of phone calls to take them on as clients. 🐾 campaign and wait to run him at Aqueduct, the track at which he had won and finished second four times each.

On Nov. 25, back at the track he favors best, Loki's Vengeance won his first race of the year in a 7¼-length romp in the $125,000 New York Stallion Series Stakes Thunder Rumble Division, taking the race for the second year in a row, this time off a four-month layoff.

"It was nice to see that dominant of a performance," said Greenhouse, who with high school friend Boehning runs in the name of Blue Bison Stable.

"He seemed sluggish in his race in July," said Greenhouse of a fifth-place finish at Belmont Park. "Mike suggested giving him some time off, and, hopefully, we'll have a successful fall/winter campaign."

Now a resident of Colorado, Greenhouse was there to walk the horse into the winner's circle while New York City's Boehning had to watch via the New York Racing Association HD app on his phone while at a business dinner in London.

"I had to ask the restaurant for the secret WiFi code," he said with a laugh. "Nothing better than winning a race in that style before you sit down to dinner."

Under jockey José Ortiz, Loki's Vengeance maintained a short lead throughout much of the seven-furlong race, opening up at will in the stretch and hitting the wire in 1:23.20.

Bred in New York by Andrew Cohen, Loki's Vengeance was purchased by Blue Bison for $35,000 at the Fasig-Tipton sale of preferred New York-bred yearlings in Saratoga in 2012 from the Vinery consignment. The dark bay or brown horse by Frost Giant out of Subtle Sweetness (by During) has earned $492,201 in 22 starts.

"He's such an honest horse," said Boehning. "I have to say, the minute I first saw him, I fell in love with him, when Lere (Visagie of Rockridge Stud) brought him out of his stall."

Named after a Marvel Comics character that was found hidden among the Frost Giants, Loki's Vengeance reminds Boehning of the filly that got Blue Bison started; all of Shine Upon's five victories came at Aqueduct, and it's to Aqueduct that Loki's Vengeance will return this winter, with both the Gravesend Stakes on Dec. 18 and the Hollie Hughes Handicap in January on the tentative schedule, the latter a race Hushion has won five times, more than any other trainer.

"We'll try," said Greenhouse, "to get him another one."

Later in the program, 2-year-old filly Filibustin became the second wire-to-wire stakes winner on the day when she ran off with the $100,000 Key Cents Stakes, keeping her undefeated record intact with a three-length win going six furlongs.

Filibustin didn't have it quite as easy

Key Cents stakes winner Filibustin has little competition near the wire

as Loki's Vengeance; she and jockey José Lezcano were hounded by longshots but shook them off at the eighth pole and pulled clear to give the daughter of Bustin Stones a second straight stakes victory.

Out of the Western Cat mare Sweet Aloha, Filibustin is owned by Alan Cook, who bred the filly in the name of Luck Be a Lady Racing off the gift of a stallion season by J.J. Crupi, at whose farm Cook's horses get their early training. Cook claimed Sweet Aloha out of a race at the Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races for $10,000; she went on to win four races for him.

Filibustin won at first asking, winning a maiden claimer Sept. 4 at Monmouth Park by 8¼ lengths. She's trained by the Monmouth-based Greg Sacco, whose cousin Johnny took care of the filly when she was on Crupi's farm.

"Our plan was to run her at Saratoga, but she missed a couple of works due to being sick," said Sacco. "I was a little concerned about running her in a $40,000 claimer the first time out, but it worked out well enough."

And while the filly was tested for the first time in the Key Cents, that was fine by her owner.

"We wanted to see what she had if she got challenged," said Cook. "We wanted to see if she'd back down."

She didn't, and while she may stay in New York-bred company for the time being, both owner and trainer expect an open company start in 2017.

"We're in the driver's seat against state-breds at this point," said Sacco. "Next summer is a different ballgame, and we'll step up to the plate again. We'll cross the bridge into open company stakes in her 3-year-old season, certainly." 🐾

Bavaro wins by 3¼ lengths

CHELSEA DURAND/NTRA

Bavaro, named for the former New York Giants standout, stars in the Great White Way

Big Hit

BY PAUL VOLPONI

WHEN FORMER NEW YORK GIANTS head coach and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Bill Parcells (August Dawn Farm) named a 2-year-old New York-

bred Bavaro, honoring one of his cherished players—Mark Bavaro—insiders had an inkling the colt could run. That deduction turned out to be true in spades as the gray/roan son of Freud, now unbeaten in a pair of starts, scored an impressive front-running victory in the $150,000 Great White Way division of the New York Stallion Series Stakes Dec. 17.

Trainer Gary Sciacca selected the colt at the

Fasig-Tipton sale of preferred New York-breds in August 2015 for $85,000.

“He was a big, tough-looking son of a gun,” said the Brooklyn-born Sciacca, who will always be remembered in the annals of state-bred racing history for conditioning Saratoga Dew to an Eclipse Award in 1992 as top 3-year-old filly. “He looked like a bull, and believe me, nothing bothers this horse.”

Despite Sciacca’s confidence in his colt he was weary of the presence of Francis Paolangeli’s homebred Gold for the King (by Posse), who had won three of five career starts, including the $219,613 New York Breeders’ Futurity at Finger Lakes Gaming & Racetrack and the Notebook Stakes at Aqueduct.

Out of the gate in the Great White Way, Bavaro streaked to the lead and raced a strong opening half-mile in :46.59 over an inner track labeled “good” that was producing times on the slow side.

Sciacca’s guarded optimism was tested as Gold for the King made a serious run at the leader on the far turn.

“I thought he might go right by us,” said Sciacca. “But my horse had something left and this time (unlike in his debut) he changed leads.”

Parcells was watching the action from Florida, and Mark Bavaro from Boxboro, Mass., alongside his uncle, a racing enthusiast, as the equine Bavaro sailed through the stretch beneath jockey Manny Franco.

The equine Bavaro registered a 3¾-length victory, racing six furlongs in 1:11.16.

Gold for the King, from the barn of trainer Charlton Baker, was clear from the rest of the four freshman entrants by 8¾ lengths as the odds-on favorite. Sean Shay’s homebred Remstin (by Frost Giant) garnered the minor spoils in third position.

The winner has bankrolled $123,000.

Bavaro, who is out of Chantess (by Unbridled’s Song), was bred by Chris Bernhard’s Hidden Lake Farm, Gunston Hall Farm, and Anthony Grey.

I acquired from Becky Thomas and Sequel Thoroughbreds,” said Bernhard, who at the time of Bavaro’s victory was in the midst of moving close to 200 horses to his new home of operations, Quest-royal North near Stillwater. “I remember Becky saying that Unbridled’s Song mares are a great match with Freud. I’d achieved that once before with a yearling I’d gotten $100,000 for. When things like that work out on paper, on the track, and in the marketplace, I tend to stick with it.”

TOOLS TIME

Questroyal North also figured prominently in the running of the filly division, the $150,000 Fifth Avenue the following day, when the operation’s owner (and former board president of the New York Thoroughbred Breeders Association) Barry Ostrager, bred the winner. The 2-year-old filly Toni Tools is a daughter of Roaring Fever out of Patine (by Smart Strike), and is owned in partnership by St. Elias Stable, MeB Racing Stables, and Brooklyn Boyz Stables.

St. Elias Stable is run by Vincent Viola, who was appointed to president-elect Donald Trump’s cabinet as secretary to the Army.

The Fifth Avenue was a tale of two races—one contested early on in the six-furlong event over a muddy and sealed track, and another which unfolded in the shadow of the wire.

The 4-5 favorite, Alan Cook’s Filibustin (by Bustin Stones), and the second-choice, Chester and Mary Broman’s homebred Catcher in the Sky (by Noonmark), pushed each other through scintillating fractions early on.

With Filibustin holding a slight advantage over Catcher in the Sky, the pair zipped through an opening quarter mile in :22.07 and a half mile in :45.83.

The undefeated Filibustin, who was three-for-three for trainer Gregory Sacco, shook clear in the stretch. But the demanding pace took its toll through the final furlong as Filibustin shortened stride.

Assistant Byron Hughes and Franco

Rallying on the outside under Franco was the determined Toni Tools. And down at the rail, making up ground steadily, was The Elkstone Group’s Passporttovictory (by Frost Giant).

Toni Tools surged to the fore in the final yards registering a half-length victory in 1:14.43.

“She got up in time. It was a very dramatic win. She seemed to handle the (muddy track) well,” said assistant Byron Hughes, who saddled for trainer Todd Pletcher. Toni Tools has now won her last three since joining the Pletcher barn. Overall, the winner is 3-1-0 in five starts and has earned $164,172.

For several minutes after the contest, the New York Racing Association announced that Passporttovictory had dead-heated for second with Filibustin, even though it was apparent to the naked-eye that Passporttovictory had gotten her nose on the wire ahead of that rival. The mistake, however, was rectified before any payouts, and Passporttovictory was solely awarded the place slot. 🐾 starts and all told this year has earned $361,500 off a 2-0-3 mark in eight starts.

Highway Star, by Girolamo out of Stolen Star, won a division of the New York Stallion Series prior to the $250,000 Go for Wand. She earned $369,000 in 2016.

Taking home $150,000 first prize in the New York-bred's first step into open company was strong, but the chestnut filly comes from good stock.

The Bromans' Chestertown Farm purchased Unbridled Star, the granddam of Highway Star, in foal to Cat Thief for $115,000 at the 2002 Keeneland November sale. The foal she was carrying turned out to be stakes-placed Stolen Star, the dam of Highway Star.

"Carson Asbury picked her out for the Bromans," said Chestertown farm manager Jeff Raine. "Give him all the credit. That was one of the Bromans' first big buys.

"Stolen Star is a big, strapping chestnut mare," he continued. "She's a raw kind of mare that produces a big, strapping foal. Highway Star was a leggy chestnut; she wasn't scrawny at all."

The Bromans, who have been named New York breeders of the year on multiple occasions, appear to be on their way to another title (see page 18). The Bromans have a clear lead as well in the owners list by New York-bred earnings (see page 20).

A.P. Indy is the sire of Girolamo, the sire of Highway Star, and the Go for Wand winner is from his first crop. The grade I winner stood his first two seasons at Sequel Stallions in New York before moving on to Darley in Kentucky for the 2014 breeding season.

Bloodstock adviser Alan Porter suggested the mating. Porter has made a short list for the Bromans as to who to breed Stolen Star to in 2017, and the list includes fellow A.P. Indy sons Bernardini and Malibu Moon, along with Pioneerof the Nile, Candy Ride, and More Than Ready. 🐾

Go-Go Star

BY EVAN HAMMONDS

WHEN CHESTER AND MARY BROMAN'S homebred Highway Star pulled off a mild 7-1 upset in the Dec. 3 Go for Wand Handicap (gr. III) at Aqueduct, she marked the first graded win for the year for the power couple that own Chestertown Farm near Chestertown.

The lone sophomore in the cast—and one of three New York-breds—she edged High Ridge Road by a nose. The Bromans also had the 7-10 favorite in the field, state-bred Bar of Gold, who finished fourth.

Bar of Gold had been the Bromans' chief earner this year prior to the Go for Wand with two stakes wins over state-bred company on New York Showcase days in the May 30 Critical Eye Stakes and Oct. 22 Empire Distaff Handicap, good for $270,000 in state-bred earnings. She placed in three graded

The accompanying list reports sires of New York-bred winners in 2016, 3-year-olds and upward, of all recent North American races, except straight claiming races.

The second list reports sires of all New York-bred juvenile winners in the same time period.

The lists are presented alphabetically by sire followed by the winners dam. The name of the winner is in lightface capital letters (boldface capital letters if the win came in a stakes race), followed in parentheses by the number of current-year starters in North America for the sire and the sire's total number of individual winners in 2016, regardless of state where bred. Followed by the winners sex; age; race track; class of the race; date of the race; distance of the race, expressed in furlongs and fractions of furlongs; time of the race; first-place money earned by the winner.

Abbreviations used for the class of race are similar to those used by Equibase: Alw—allowance; Hcp—overnight handicap; names of stakes race are spelled out, with the grade of the race, when applicable, in parentheses.
