It's All About the Yearlings

IN RECENT YEARS every industry news outlet, including this magazine, has traced the meteoric rise of the Fasig-Tipton sale of preferred New York-bred yearlings. In 2018 the auction, once again, set records. Flash forward one month and relocate to Kentucky and we find New York-bred yearlings enjoying unprecedented success at the recently-concluded Keeneland September yearling sale.

The results remind me that New York-breds took different paths to success at these sales. Buyers whose focus has long been on New York responded immediately to the anticipated opening of Resorts World video lottery terminals in 2011, when the New York Racing Association increased purses 36% and the New York Thoroughbred Breeding and Development Fund hiked program awards 50%. The August before Resorts World opened in October, total sales at the Fasig-Tipton auction rose to $6,725,500 from $3,676,000 in 2010.

That said, the Fasig-Tipton sale is, by definition, a “preferred” sale. It features the cream of the New York-bred crop and attracts prospective owners and buyers who are most invested in succeeding in the New York program. The numbers should be best there. The Keeneland sale, which is North America’s premier yearling sale as well as a “non-preferred” sale outside of the “home market” is arguably a better measure of a wider embrace of the New York “brand.” The numbers tell an interesting story.

First, a review the growth-arc of the Fasig-Tipton preferred sale (Chart I). Following the initial bump in 2011, total sales increased by impressive increments for two years, bringing the average and median in their train. In 2013 the auction grossed $14,206,000. At this point the numbers plateaued (give or take) until 2017 when total sales rose to $16,214,000. In 2018 the sale set records with $18,492,000 in total sales, a six-figure average, and record median.

Year	Sold	Average	Median	Total Sales
2018	182	$107,512	$76,000	$18,492,000
2017	182	$89,088	$69,500	$16,214,000
2016	177	$77,246	$60,000	$13,672,500
2015	182	$81,739	$65,000	$14,876,500
2014	176	$80,108	$65,000	$14,099,000
2013	196	$72,480	$55,000	$14,206,000
2012	138	$62,551	$50,000	$8,632,000
2011	124	$54,238	$35,000	$6,725,500

The arc of New York-bred success at Keeneland has been different (Chart II). In 2011 only 38 horses were sold for a $44,415 average, $32,500 median, and a gross of $1,677,500. It would be two years before the wider market would embrace the New York-bred “brand.”

New York-breds “arrived” at Keeneland in 2013—and did so in a big way as the New York-bred indicators rose to a level they would not see again until this year. Seventy-six New York-breds sold in 2013 (a record that has not yet been eclipsed) for an average price of $81,088, median of $30,000, and total sales of $6,162,700.

In 2016 there was a correction in the entire yearling market, which for New York-breds at Keeneland proved fairly dramatic, with some indicators slipping to, or below, 2011 levels. The correction took a more muted form at the Fasig-Tipton sale as the only year since 2011 the key indicators dipped. Even then they did not lose too much ground.

Thereafter, at Keeneland New York-breds climbed steadily before reaching this year’s record-breaking results. The $97,026 New York-bred average was up 24.1% from 2017, the $45,000 median was 25% higher than the prior year, and total sales of $5,530,500 topped sales the previous year by a whopping 36.1%.

Year	Sold	Average	Median	Total Sales
2018	57	$97,026	$45,000	$5,530,500
2017	52	$78,158	$36,000	$4,064,200
2016	52	$45,317	$16,000	$2,356,500
2015	71	$71,994	$22,000	$5,111,600
2014	60	$68,568	$50,000	$4,144,410
2013	76	$81,088	$30,000	$6,162,700
2012	34	$66,338	$32,500	$2,555,500
2011	38	$44,415	$32,500	$1,677,500

The takeaways are as follows. Excitement about New York-breds at the Kentucky sale did not catch on until two years after VLT revenue came online, but has become robust. New York-breds have, for all intents and purposes “caught up” at Keeneland with one caveat. A market correction, as in 2016, caused New York-breds to pay a much bigger price out-of-state than at home.

With no ongoing changes in the purse or awards structure in the state, New York-bred yearlings are enhancing their value from year to year both in-state and nationally on their own merits. Granted, a strong economy, booming stock market, and tax provisions favoring ownership play a role, but continued demand for New York-breds, which does not yet appear to have reached its ceiling, seems to be fed currently by a positive feedback loop. Healthy competition among breeders has led to an improvement in the stock which results in superior racetrack (continued on page 8)

Leonard Green Brings Credentials, Experience to NYTB October Seminar

The featured speaker at the New York Thoroughbred Breeders' Oct. 14 meeting "How to Develop a Strategy for Success: Equine Business Consultation" will be Leonard C. Green, CPA, MBA. Green has extensive credentials, three decades of experience in the Thoroughbred industry, and a long list of accomplishments that should make for a highly informative discussion.

Given the open format of the seminar-style meeting, Green has also asked NYTB to solicit questions from attendees in advance about any topics they would like to see discussed. Questions may be emailed to info@nytbreeders.org.

A New Jersey certified public accountant, Green is a graduate of the Harvard Business School Owner/President Management Program. He holds a master's degree in taxation from New York University and an undergraduate degree in accounting from Rutgers University. For 17 years Green has taught entrepreneurship and family business courses at Babson College.

The seminar, which is scheduled to take place the day before Fasig-Tipton's Saratoga fall sale and includes the 2018 Annual NYTB Membership Meeting, will begin at 5 p.m. at the Fasig-Tipton Sales Pavilion.

The event is sponsored by the New York State Thoroughbred Breeding & Development Fund Corporation and will be immediately followed by a complimentary guest cocktail hour and barbeque for all RSVP'd guests in attendance. Those who wish to attend must RSVP to the NYTB office by Oct. 11 at (518) 587-0777.

Frank Conversation to Rockridge Stud

Frank Conversation, a 5-year-old son of Quality Road out of Rushen Heat (by Unusual Heat), will stand at Rockridge Stud near Hudson in 2019. The multiple graded stakes winner and grade 1 stakes-placed runner raced for J. Paul Reddam.

Frank Conversation broke his maiden at 2 at Santa Anita and won his first graded stakes, the El Camino Real Derby (G3), at 3. He additionally captured the Twilight Derby (G2T) at Santa Anita, following up with a third-place finish in the Hollywood Derby (G1T) later that year. He retires with earnings of $520,965 and a record of 4-2-4 from 19 starts.

Frank Conversation's dam is a full sister to grade 1 stakes winners Unusual Suspect and Golden Doc A.

"Quality Road is on fire right now, and we think Frank Conversation provides a great opportunity," said Lere Visagie, Rockridge's owner and director. "We are syndicating the horse and will also offer lifetime breeding rights as options."

Alpha Gets First Winner

Albie at Belmont Park

In his debut effort, Albie took a $62,000 maiden special weight race restricted to New York-bred 2-year-olds at Belmont Park Sept. 23 to become the first winner for freshman sire Alpha.

The Pepi Weis homebred is out of the unraced Thunder Gulch mare Hopephilly, who has produced four other winners, including the stakes-placed Sugar Trade. He is trained by Michael Dilger and won the 1 $\frac{1}{16}$ -mile race by 1 $\frac{1}{4}$  lengths in 1:44.01.

Alpha, a son of Bernardini, was campaigned by Godolphin Racing and won the 2012 Jim Dandy Stakes (G2) and Travers Stakes (G1) back-to-back as a 3-year-old. In 2013 he returned to take the Woodward Stakes (G1). At 2, he placed in the Champagne Stakes (G1). He retired with a record of 6-2-1 in 22 starts, with earnings of $1,815,667.

Standing at Sequel Stallions New York, Alpha had a 2018 fee of $5,000.

It's All About the Yearlings

performance, which leads to greater demand and higher prices.

This month, we turn once again to Fasig-Tipton's October sale in Saratoga which has evolved from humble beginnings in 2012 to a "must-attend" event for buyers and pinhookers eager to get their first look at the year's foal crop. Last year New York-bred weanlings became a national force in their own right, dramatically outperforming the general weanling population at the two-week Keeneland November sale.

At Keeneland, New York-breds posted a $94,335 weanling average and $75,000 weanling median, compared to the general average and median of $69,392 and $37,000, respectively. I would not be surprised to see this wave continue. 🐾

New York-bred Yearlings Soar Along with Record-Setting Keeneland September Market

While the 13-day Keeneland September yearling sale set a new mark for average ($129,335) and grossed more than $337 million, the contingent of New York-breds in the marathon sale set its own benchmarks. The New York-bred average price and median improved by 24.1% over last year, total sales were up by more than 31.1%, and buy-backs—while elevated in the early books—posted a significant decline compared to last year.

This year 76 New York-bred yearlings were offered, comparable to last year's group of 75. Gross sales were $5,530,500, up from $4,064,200 in 2017. Accordingly, this year's average price of $97,026 was up over $78,158 last year. The median price of a New York-bred, $45,000, was up 25% over last year's $36,000.

New York-bred buy-backs, too, went in the right direction year-over-year. Over the course of the auction, 25 of the yearlings were listed as buy-backs, which was significantly lower than 2017 when 52 of 75 sold for a 30.7% buy-back rate.

While the strong New York-bred median is always a positive indicator for the marketplace as a whole, there was significant action at the very top of the market. In both 2017 and 2018, 14 individuals sold for six figures. The topper in 2017 was an Into Mischief colt out of Indian Rush bred by Pine Ridge Stables who was purchased by Sheikh Hamdan's Shadwell Estate Co. for $750,000. Bred by Chester and Mary Broman, this year's top-seller was a $500,000 American Pharoah yearling who is a half brother to Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint (G1) winner Bar of Gold. Ten New York-bred yearlings sold for $200,000 and up, compared to four last year.

NY-BREDS START WITH AN ADVANTAGE

La Fuerza, Sassy Agnes Score at Finger Lakes

Lady Finger victory delivers first stakes winner for Central Banker

Barry Schwartz' homebred La Fuerza (by Flatter) improved his career record to three-for-four with his score in the $112,850 Aspirant Stakes for New York-bred juvenile colts and geldings Sept. 8 at Finger Lakes Gaming & Racetrack with a professional stalking trip.

Trained by Todd Pletcher, La Fuerza came into the six-furlong Aspirant fresh from his first defeat. After winning his debut and the Rockville Centre Stakes at Belmont Park by a combined 12¼ lengths in June and July, on New York Showcase Day at Saratoga (Aug. 24) he went back to the barn a well-beaten favorite when he finished last in the Funny Cide Stakes. That day he veered out at the start and never really got in the game.

La Fuerza's prior victories had both come through stalking tactics. Jockey Chris DeCarlo, La Fuerza's fourth pilot in as many races, adopted a variation of the same strategy in the Aspirant from post one aboard the 1-4 favorite. In the stretch La Fuerza drew clear by three lengths over Kadens Courage in 1:12.97. Kadens Courage in second was 6¾ lengths clear of 51-1 longshot Pay the Vet.

Foaled at Schwartz' Stonewall Farm near Granite Springs, La Fuerza is the first foal out of Jonata (by Proud Citizen), a Kentucky-bred two-time winner purchased by Schwartz as a yearling for $100,000 at the 2011 Keeneland September yearling sale. Jonata is a daughter of Romp and Stomp, a half sister to Breeders' Cup Classic (G1) winner Volponi and to grade 3-placed Fickle Friends, the dam of New York-bred stakes winner Rewrite. Jonata delivered a colt by Mizzen Mast Jan. 27 and has been bred to English Channel.

Beach Haven Thoroughbreds' Sassy Agnes broke her maiden in dramatic fashion when she won the co-featured Lady Finger Stakes, a six-furlong dash for state-bred 2-year-old fillies worth $112,388. Sassy Agnes' victory also gave her freshman sire Central Banker his first stakes winner. A top-10 first-crop sire nationally, Central Banker (by Speightstown) stands in New York at McMahon of Saratoga Thoroughbreds.

Trained by Linda Rice, the New York Racing Association-based filly covered the trip in 1:12.94, defeating Ma Meatloaf by three-quarters of a length. It was 13½ lengths back to Jaded Lady in third.

Bred by Klaravich Stables and foaled at McMahon of Saratoga Thoroughbreds, Sassy Agnes is a graduate of this year's Ocala Breeders' Sales' March 2-year-olds in training sale, where she sold for $105,000 after the filly breezed a furlong in :10.

Sassy Agnes, who has earned $83,182, is from a familiar New York family. She is the first foal out of Bullish Sentiment, an unraced daughter of Stormy Atlantic. Bullish Sentiment is a full sister to Stormy's Majesty (bred by Majesty Stud), winner of the Discovery Handicap (G3) and three other stakes races, earning $336,649. Their dam is stakes performer Raffie's Dream. Bullish Sentiment was bred this year to Constitution.

2018 LEADING SIRES IN NEW YORK

For stallions that stand, will stand, or stood (deceased) in New York (stallions that are dead or exported prior to 2014 are excluded), and have runners in North America. Listed below are all available statistics for the Northern Hemisphere through September 23, 2018. As supplied to BloodHorse by The Jockey Club Information Systems Inc., include adjusted money from Japan, Hong Kong, and Singapore. Adjusted earnings are put on par with average North American earnings from the previous year. For example, the average North American purse in 2017 is $22,593 or 47% of the 2017 average purse in Japan. To put earnings on par, all Japanese progeny earnings are multiplied by 47% before being credited to a sire's progeny earnings. Hong Kong earnings are adjusted by 15%; Singapore by 68%. Current year stakes winners include all Northern Hemisphere black-type stakes results from all available countries. *Foal counts include Southern Hemisphere. Cumulative stakes winners include all countries.

AVERAGE-EARNINGS INDEX and COMPARABLE INDEX: Lifetime AVERAGE-EARNINGS INDEX indicates how much purse money the progeny of one sire has earned in relation to the average earnings of all runners in the same years; average earnings of all runners in any year is represented by an index of 1.00; COMPARABLE INDEX indicates the average earnings of progeny produced from mares bred to one sire, when these same mares were bred to other sires. Only 32% of all sires have a lifetime AVERAGE-EARNINGS INDEX higher than their mares' COMPARABLE INDEX.

Fifty New York-breds have earned at least $1 million

Diversify's Whitney score bumps him to the eighth spot on the all-time earnings list

Mind Your Biscuits, outside, takes this year's Golden Shaheen

THE NATIONAL RACING SPOTLIGHT focused on a pair of uber-talented New York-breds Aug. 4 in the 91st edition of the $1.2-million Whitney Stakes (G1)—multiple graded stakes winners Diversify (by Bellamy Road) and Mind Your Biscuits (by Posse).

Both horses delivered in a big way with Diversify posting a front-running 3½-length score while Mind Your Biscuits, who was making his two-turn debut in the nine-furlong event, was a strong runner-up after putting in a menacing rally on the latter portion of the far turn.

It's possible these two Empire State standouts could square off again Nov. 3 in the $6 million Breeders' Cup Classic (G1) at Churchill Downs.

The Whitney win added $650,000 to Diversify's bankroll ($1,959,425, ranked ninth all-time among New York-breds). Mind Your Biscuits, the number one state-bred earner at $4,159,286, collected $220,000 for his second-place finish.

Millionaires

Currently, 50 New York-breds have career earnings of $1 million or more.

Mind Your Biscuits raked in a good portion of his revenues overseas, winning back-to-back editions of the $2 million Dubai Golden Shaheen Sponsored by Gulf News (G1) at Meydan Racecourse in 2017 and 2018.

Other New York-breds have also made their monetary marks abroad, including A Shin Forward (by Forest Wildcat), who is ranked third on the Empire State-bred earner list behind Mind Your Biscuits and 2003 3-year-old champion Funny Cide ($3,529,412), victorious in the 2003 Kentucky Derby (G1) and Preakness Stakes (G1).

Bred by Vivien Malloy's Edition Farm, A Shin Forward excelled on the turf in Japan over a five-season racing career. In 2010 the colt triumphed in the grade 1 Japan Autumn International Mile Championship, as well as the group 3 Hankyu Hai.

A Shin Forward earned $3,416,216, finishing in the money in eight stakes events while compiling a 6-3-3 mark in 30 starts. A Shin Forward, out of the Cure the Blues mare Wake Up Kiss, began stallion duty at Lex Stud in Hokkaido in Japan. But as of February 2018, A Shin Forward returned home to stand at Rockridge Stud near Hudson.

New York-bred millionaires aren't shy about showing up on the racetrack regularly, thus cultivating themselves a dedicated fan base.

Richard Bomze bred a pair of such fan favorites, full brothers—Fourstardave ($1,636,737) and Fourstars Allstar ($1,596,760). The durable runners by Compliance—Broadway Joan, by Bold Arian, combined for 159 career starts. Fourstardave (21-18-16 in 100 outings), who was also known as the "Sultan of Saratoga," won a race at the Spa for eight consecutive seasons from 1987-94. Fourstars Allstar (14-14-9 in 59 starts) ventured across the pond to prove victorious in the Airlie Coolmore Irish Two Thousand Guineas (G1) in 1991.

Like rivalries? A trio of New York-bred millionaires weren't shy about squaring off against one another in a multitude of stakes. Lubash ($1,515,139), King Kreesa ($1,431,654) and Kharafa ($1,236,622) formed the ultimate state-bred grass triumvirate, finishing 1-2-3 on four separate occasions. To prove the point, observe these New York-bred grass stakes results.

Kingston Stakes (winners): 2015 Lubash, 2014 Kharafa, 2013 King Kreesa;

Ashley T. Cole Handicap (winners): 2014 Lubash, 2013 Kharafa, 2012 Lubash;

Mohawk Stakes (winners): 2015 Lubash, 2014 Kharafa, 2013 King Kreesa.

This past summer at the Spa, Kharafa (Kitalpha—Exquisite Cassie, by King of Kings), at age 9 and in his final season of racing before retiring to Old Friends, scored in the $125,000 West Point Stakes Presented by Trustco Bank on New York Showcase Day.

In the consistency department, millionaire Fourstar Crook (by Freud), bred by Kathleen Feron, had captured eight races in a row before being beaten in the 2017 Yaddo Stakes by fellow New York-bred millionaire and 2017 Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint winner (G1) Bar of Gold ($1,551,000), bred and owned by Chester and Mary Broman. This summer the late-running Fourstar Crook finished second in the Beverly D. Stakes (G1T) at Arlington, increasing her earnings to $1,329,566.

Finding a future New York-bred millionaire at the claim-box:

Breeder Sanford Bacon lost racing legend Say Florida Sandy via a $70,000 claim. Over a seven-year span (1996-2001), the consistent colt was recognized by the New York Thoroughbred Breeders with eight year-end awards, including Horse of the Year in 2001 and 2002. Say Florida Sandy (Personal Flag—Lolli Lucka Lolli), who retired from racing in 2003 with 19 stakes victories, amassed $2,085,408 in his 98 starts (33-17-12).

Sharp-eyed owner Michael Dubb claimed Royal Posse for $20,000 in May 2015. The hard-knocking runner went on to capture back-to-back Claiming Crown Jewel Stakes (2015-16) and the 2016 Empire Classic Handicap sporting Dubb's rose adorned yellow and pink silks, while building a bankroll of $1,037,560.

Of course, early New York-bred stars didn't have the advantage of the now lucrative state-bred program sponsoring a slate of enriched state-bred stakes and New York-bred Showcase events. As a result, celebrated runners such as Fio Rito, the first state-bred to win a grade 1 event after annexing the 1981 Whitney, Cupecoy's Joy, who took both the grade 1 Acorn Stakes and grade 1 Mother Goose Stakes in 1982, and 1992 3-year-old filly champion Saratoga Dew, the first New York-bred Eclipse Award recipient, all failed to reach the $1-million earnings mark. 🐾

THE BIG '80S

BY ALLEN CARTER

Cheapskate winning the grade 3 Affirmed Handicap in 1986 at Hollywood Park

THE GELDING CHEAPSKATE (1983, Overskate—Kimberley June, by Good Old Mort) was bred by the partnership of Jean de Castella de Delley, P. Bankard, and Mrs. Primrose Hayes at de Castella de Delley's farm near Tivoli, New York. He was owned by the Triple Dot Dash Stable of Jim and Joyce Vandervoort of Palm Desert, Calif., and trained by Darrell Vienna.

Unraced at 2, Cheapskate lost his first five starts as a 3-year-old before breaking his maiden May 31, 1986, by winning the $50,000 Emeryville Handicap at 7½ furlongs on the turf at Golden Gate Fields.

After a second in the Sutter Handicap on the turf June 21, he was shipped to Canterbury Downs in Minnesota to run in the inaugural $300,000 St. Paul Derby on June 29 on the dirt.

The race was considered a stopover on his way to New York to participate in the lucrative New York-bred stakes program. The favorite in the race was Broad Brush, winner of the Jim Beam Stakes (G3) and Wood Memorial Invitational Stakes (G1), who, along with Arkansas Derby (G1) winner Rampage, and Bachelor Beau, winner of the grade 1 Blue Grass Stakes, were lured by $100,000 in incentives if they finished first, second, or third. Cheapskate shocked the bettors, and even his connections (Vienna did not attend the race; Cheapskate was saddled by Vienna's assistant, Kimberly Anderson) when he overtook Broad Brush at the top of the stretch and held on to win by a nose at 70-1. The $180,000 Cheapskate banked more than quadrupled his previous earnings.

Ironically, if the West Coast star Snow Chief (winner of the Preakness Stakes, G1) had entered the race as previously planned, Cheapskate would have been scratched.

After the "stopover" in Minnesota, Cheapskate continued to New York, where he finished second in the New York Derby at Finger Lakes in July and won the Aug. 4 Albany Stakes at Saratoga.

He then ventured into graded stakes company, finishing third to the 35-1 Sumptuous in the Arlington Classic (G1) as a 9-2 shot. Finishing behind him were the D. Wayne Lukas-trained Clear Choice, sixth at 3-1, and Lac Ouimet, eighth, the favorite at 5-2.

One month later he and Southern Halo finished in a dead heat for second in Louisiana Downs' Super Derby (G1). The winner, the 7-10 favorite Wise Times, who earlier had won the Haskell Invitational Handicap (G1) and the Travers Stakes (G1), finished first by a half-length.

Cheapskate later added the grade 3 Affirmed Handicap at Hollywood Park, giving him a record of four wins, six seconds, and two thirds from 16 starts, with earnings of $475,214. He finished off the board in his only start in 1987, and never raced again.

GRECIAN FLIGHT

After a 2-year-old season cut short by a cracked shinbone, Grecian Flight (1984, Cormorant—Green Greek, by Green Ticket) emerged as one of the better middle-distance older fillies and mares of her generation. She was bred and owned by Henry C.B. Lindh, an investment broker, and trained by the late Joe Pierce Jr. In 1986 she started four times, with her only win in open company coming in the $50,000 Holly Stakes at the Meadowlands. Her lone loss came in her last race of the year, the grade 3 Tempted Stakes at Aqueduct, where she finished a neck second to Silent Turn.

Grecian Flight became a star in 1987, starting nine times, all in stakes company, winning four times.

After beginning the season by winning the New York-bred Montauk Stakes and Bouwerie Stakes, she suffered the first two off-the-board defeats of her career when she finished eighth in Keeneland's Ashland Stakes (G1) April 18 and fourth in Aqueduct's May 3 Comely Stakes (G3) at seven panels.

Grecian Flight rebounded by winning her first graded stakes when she took the grade 2 Black-Eyed Susan Stakes at Pimlico by three lengths. On May 23 she continued her progression when she won her only grade 1 race by taking the one-mile Acorn Stakes at Belmont Park at 11-1. Finishing fourth was Chic Shirine, who had beaten her in the Ashland. The Acorn was Grecian Flight's last victory of the year, as she finished second in the 1½-mile Mother Goose Stakes (G1), fourth in the 12-furlong Coaching Club American Oaks (G1), and third in the July 25 Monmouth Oaks (G1) at nine furlongs.

Her marks on the year were four wins, one second, and a third in nine outings with earnings of $394,201. She was assigned 119 pounds in Daily Racing Form's Experimental Free Handicap, with only the future Hall of Fame inductee Personal Ensign (124), Sacahuista (124), and Fiesta Gal (120) rated higher.

Grecian Flight's 1988 campaign was not as successful. Her best win came in late June in the seven-furlong Vagrancy Handicap (G3), going off as the 2-1 favorite against such stars as Tappiano and Cadillacing. Her other wins came in the Hyde Park Handicap for New York-breds and the Woodbine Budweiser Breeders' Cup Handicap. She also finished a well-beaten second (eight lengths) to Personal Ensign in the Molly Pitcher Handicap (G2) at Monmouth Park. She ended the year with six wins, two seconds from 13 starts, and earnings of $337,146.

Grecian Flight began her 1989 season by winning two allowance races sandwiched around a third-place finish in Belmont Park's Shuvee Handicap (G1). On June 17 she won her first graded stakes of the year when she took the one mile, 70-yard Monmouth Park Breeders' Cup Handicap (G3) by four lengths, equaling the track record of 1:39½. On July 4 she finished third in the Molly Pitcher, although it was revealed after the race that she had bled. After a fifth in the Budweiser Handicap at Fairmount Park and a win in the the Burlington County Stakes at Meadowlands, she finished second to Kentucky Derby winner Winning Colors in the Turfway Budweiser Breeders' Cup Handicap. In late October, Grecian Flight won the last graded stakes of her career when she took the seven-furlong First Flight Handicap (G3) by a neck at Aqueduct. Her $51,480 share of the First Flight purse pushed her lifetime earnings over the $1.1 million mark.

She ended her season with wins in the Straight Deal Handicap at Laurel Park and the Iroquois Stakes and Ticonderoga Handicap for New York-breds at Aqueduct, giving her a record of eight wins, one second, and two thirds in 12 starts, with earnings of $459,126. After one placing in two starts in 1990 she was retired with career earnings of $1,320,215.

As a broodmare Grecian Flight produced 11 foals, including the stakes-winning French Vintage (by Mecke) and the grade 2 stakes-placed Grecian Lover (by Friendly Lover).

BURYYOURBELIEF

Like Allez Milord and Queen Alexandra, the filly Buryyourbelief (1984, Believe It—Bury the Hatchet, by Tom Rolfe) found success away from New York and its lucrative state-bred incentives. She was owned and bred by Dana Bray Jr., an oil executive from Queensbury, N.Y., and was trained first by Guillermo Barrera, and later by Hall of Famer Laz Barrera. She made one start for Luis Barrera.

Buryyourbelief's base was California, where she broke her maiden in her third career start in 1986 (after two starts at Saratoga). After a win, a second, and two thirds in allowance company to start her 1987 season she made her debut in stakes races, finishing second in the Santa Ysabel Stakes, the grade 1 Santa Anita Oaks, and the Ashland Stakes (G1) at Keeneland.

On May 1 she broke her case of seconditis when she won the Kentucky Oaks (G1) at 8-1. It was the last time she finished in the money in a graded stakes. Her last meaningful stakes race came in her next start when she finished fourth in the Mother Goose Stakes. Finishing first was Fiesta Gal and second was the New York-bred Grecian Flight.

Buryyourbelief ended her sophomore season with two firsts, four seconds, and one third from 11 starts, with earnings of $272,049. She was assigned 117 pounds in the Free Handicap Weights for 3-year-old fillies, seven less than the undefeated Personal Ensign, three less than Fiesta Gal, and two less than Grecian Flight.

After finishing out of the money in her first five races in 1988, she broke her knee in an allowance race at Del Mar and had to be put down.

MICHAEL BURNS

was bred by Lee Eaton and Oakleigh B. Thorne, owned by George Layman Jr., of Yakima, Wash., and trained by John Hertler. As a 2-year-old, he won three of five starts, with earnings of $254,676, his wins coming in New York-bred stakes races. In 1988 he won once in nine starts, but three of his losses included a second in the restricted Mike Lee Handicap and thirds in the Albany Stakes, the Longacres Derby in his owner's home state, and the Pennsylvania Derby (G2).

His one win, however, was a lucrative one, coming in the inaugural edition of the $1 million Molson Export Challenge at Woodbine. Although Woodbine management hoped the seven-figure purse would lure the cream of the 3-year-old crop from the United States, the best that the race attracted was one grade 1 winner, Evening Kris, and the only other graded stakes winners were Cefis, Dynaformer, and the Canadian-bred Regal Classic. Against this modest field Ballindaggin stalked the front-running Mottly Moseley, taking the lead in the home stretch to win by a half-length at 7-1. The $600,000 he earned was at that time the largest purse ever won by a New York-bred and accounted for most of the $692,218 he won that year. He was retired after his 3-year-old season with a 4-2-3 mark and earned $946,894.

JOE'S TAMMIE

Joe's Tammie (1985; Zoning—Funny Tammy, by Tentam) was bred by Dominick Imperio and L. Connelly, originally owned by Suzanne Moscarelli and trained by H. Allen Jerkens. After she won the Astoria Stakes (G3) in July of her juvenile campaign, she was bought by television producer David Milch of Santa Monica, Calif. Although California-based Darrell Vienna was listed as her trainer, the day-by-day training duties were performed by his assistants Greg Ottenson and Ottenson's wife, Kim Anderson (Vienna's sister-in-law), who were based on the East Coast.

Joe's Tammie had won the Astoria by 3½ lengths at 17-1 at Belmont Park. In her next start she finished second in the grade 2 Schuylerville Stakes at Saratoga. After Saratoga she traveled west to Arlington Park in Chicago to run in the $311,400 Arlington-Washington Lassie Stakes (G1). It was the first time Vienna had seen his filly, and he was probably impressed when she won the race by two lengths as the even-money favorite. If her connections were thinking of a possible start at Hollywood Park in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies (G1), those plans were shelved when she finished off the board in Belmont's Frizette Stakes (G1). After winning the East View Stakes for state-breds, she was also off the board in Meadowlands' Gardenia Stakes (G2) and Hollywood Starlet Stakes (G1).

Her record for 1987 was four wins, one second, and one third with earnings of $326,052.

Her 1988 season continued her frustrations of the previous year. Although she earned a respectable $283,220, the money came from New York-bred and ungraded races. In her only start in a graded race, she finished eighth in the Kentucky Oaks. She did rally late in the year to win three of her last five starts in minor stakes and a handicap race at Aqueduct.

As a broodmare, she produced Balisian Beauty, by Afleet, who ran third in the 1997 Oak Leaf Stakes (G1) for Transpac Holdings and trainer Caesar Dominguez. 🐾

Cartwheelin Lulu, Frosted Ice step forward in 2-year-old stakes

Catherine Adams-Hutt, breeder and owner of Frosted Ice, with Joel Rosario after the Bongard

Juveniles' Journey

BY PAUL VOLPONI

BREEDER/OWNER RODDY VALENTE and co-breeder Dr. Jerry Bilinski must be doing cartwheels to celebrate. Their homebred 2-year-old filly Cartwheelin Lulu ran her race record to two-for-two with a determined front-running score Sept. 19 in the $150,450 Joseph A. Gimma Stakes.

The big and rangy daughter of Bustin Stones, out of Repreive, by Successful Appeal, began her career with a snappy four-length score against male rivals at Finger Lakes Aug. 16. In making the trek downstate to Belmont Park, however, there appeared to be a pair of obstacles Cartwheelin Lulu needed to overcome for trainer Jeremiah Englehart. The first, obviously, was the step up in class. The second was the seven-furlong distance of the Gimma, after the chestnut filly's 5½-furlong debut.

Valente, though, wasn't overly concerned about the added yardage.

"The reason I bred Repreive to Bustin Stones was she went long and Beyered (Beyer Speed Figures) twice in the 90s going two turns," he said. "With Bustin Stone's speed, and distance on the bottom, that made it a good fit.

"Plus, I love Successful Appeal mares."

Cartwheelin Lulu was also picking up the services of Hall of Fame jockey John Velazquez. And that probably made all of the difference.

In a race packed with speed on paper, Velazquez seized the front at the break, from the outermost stall in the field of seven. After an opening quarter-mile of :23.17, the rider guided his filly over to the rail, which had been kind to speed-types for several previous race days.

The half-mile was run in a more relaxed :47.22, and that was all the advantage that Cartwheelin Lulu needed, as she repulsed a trio of serious challenges through the forthcoming expanse of sandy stretch.

She's Trouble (by Into Mischief), from the barn of trainer Linda Rice, staged a strong four-wide run as the field turned for home. Elegant Zip (by Run Away and Hide) found a seam between runners and began to surge while Wise Racing's More Mischief (by Into Mischief) bared down on the front three inside the final sixteenth of a mile, rallying widest of all.

But Cartwheelin Lulu had plenty in the tank and the freshman filly held sway, registering a 1½-length victory over More Mischief in 1:23.71. The Chad Brown-trained More Mischief was a nose better than Elegant Zip. She's Trouble finished fourth.

"I knew I had some speed. When the others didn't go, I did. Then she relaxed on the lead and made it easy for me," said Velazquez. "I saw her for the first time in the paddock. She's a big, good-looking girl. And the gallop-out was good, even after seven furlongs. Maybe she's outgrown her pedigree (of being a sprinter).

The $82,500 increased her earnings to $93,900.

Bilinski added, "Repreive was a successful hard-knocking racehorse with a pedigree that has the likes of Rockport Harbor and Appealing Tale, which are multiple graded stakes winners. An A nick and athletic individual. I thought it would be an excellent mating and it was."

Englehart, who also saddled fifth-place finisher Party Like Grandma and seven-place finisher Ma Meatloaf, said: "Cartwheelin Lulu has been a little bit of a late bloomer as far as running early. When we got a lot of the 2-year-olds in, she was just working OK. But as she got closer to her first race, she was working a little more aggressively. I didn't think the boys at Finger Lakes were all that tough. So we ran her against the boys there, and she's matured nicely since the year's gone on."

Joseph A. Gimma was a former chairman of the New York State Racing Commission.

Frosted Ice, by Bellamy Road, cruises in the Bertram F. Bongard

FEELING FROSTY

Catherine Adams-Hutt lives and works in Texas' Dallas-Fort Worth area. But this accomplished business woman understands the advantages of breeding in New York.

Adams-Hutt's (Rialto Racing Stables) homebred Frosted Ice crushed a field of maidens in his second lifetime start Aug. 17 at Saratoga, before shipping to Belmont Park to face five freshman colts Sept. 21 in the $150,000 Bertram F. Bongard Stakes.

Frosted Ice trailed the field soon after the gate sprung open at Big Sandy. However, he didn't stay last for long.

With a three-way speed duel taking place on the front end, jockey Joel Rosario allowed the Ron Moquett-trained Frosted Ice to relax and settle into his best stride, steadily advancing toward the embattled leaders on the outside.

As the field advanced midway on the far turn, there was little doubt as to who the winner would be. The only question remaining was how dominant a performance was about to be witnessed?

Frosted Ice went to the lead as they entered the stretch. When Rosario asked for run, the colt simply strode away from the competition, registering an eye-catching 6¼-length victory.

The final time for the seven furlongs was 1:23.12.

"I saw the mare, Super Slash (by Smoke Glacken), in the 2016 Keeneland January sale. She had won more than $330,000 and raced for seven years (winning 11 of 54 starts), which told me she had heart and durability," said Adams-Hutt. "I liked her build and the sire, Bellamy Road, since my trainer, Ron Moquett, really liked a Bellamy Road colt he was training.

"She wasn't a mare I was looking at in the book until I saw her, and I was instantly a fan. I'm grateful for the good advice to send her to New York to foal and establish her foal as a New York-bred. I was excited about her and her foal from the first day we met. I credit her previous owner for making the match; I was just fortunate enough to find Super Slash and ultimately my colt, Frosted Ice."

After taking two of three starts Frosted Ice has increased his earnings to $128,250.

Lobdell Family Stables' Poppy's Destiny (by Orb), from Rice's barn, finished in second. It was another length back to John Witte Sr. and Darlene Bilinski's Bustin Hoffman (by Bustin Stones), trained by Ollie Figgins III.

Bertram F. Bongard was the founding director of the Eastern New York Thoroughbred Breeders' Association. 🐾

Surf and Turf

Fifty Five, Black Tide make 'good' on the Belmont grass

BY TERESA GENARO

ALTHOUGH FIFTY FIVE didn't have to break the speed limit at Belmont Park Sept. 23, the 4-year-old filly turned in an impressive performance to win the $129,188 John Hettinger Stakes.

In her last three races Fifty Five finished third in the Yaddo Stakes for state-breds at Saratoga, beaten a neck and a nose; she won an allowance optional claiming race at Belmont over open company by a neck; and she was second in the May 28 Mount Vernon Stakes for state-breds by a neck. In the Hettinger, at nine furlongs on the turf, she finally got some breathing room.

Conquest Hardcandy, Lady Joan, and Feeling Bossy took the early lead on a "good" inner turf course, with Fifty Five racing three-wide while five lengths off the lead. Conquest Hardcandy drew even with Lady Joan, the two of them sauntering through early fractions of :24.59 and :49.96.

Heading into the far turn, Javier Castellano tipped Fifty Five even wider, cruising past the horses in front and running five-wide around the final turn, leaving the pacesetters behind her and pulling away with ease to win by two lengths.

"I'm extremely impressed with her effort," said trainer Chad Brown. "Probably the worst trip you can have in a turf race, wide with no pace through no fault of Javier, and for her to still prevail, it was a monumental effort."

By multiple grade 1 winner Get Stormy, Fifty Five raced initially for her breeder, John and Sandy Crowe's Empire Equines, after she failed to meet her reserve at the 2015 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky October yearling sale, bringing a final bid of $24,000. She was purchased privately by Peter Brant on the advice of Alan Quartucci after winning the Florida Oaks (G3T) at Tampa Bay Downs in March 2017.

"She won a great race there," said Quartucci, "and she wasn't for sale, but Mr. Brant pursued her and we got her in the end."

"She's one of my favorite fillies," said Brant. "She's a very feminine, very nice filly."

Fifty Five is out of the Brahms mare Soave and has earned $545,788. In 15 starts she's finished worse than third only once.

Her state-bred status was not, said both Quartucci and Brant, part of her appeal when they made the offer to buy her, but it certainly didn't count against her.

"We thought it was an extra benefit," said Brant, "but she's won open company races along with New York-bred races, and New York-bred company is very tough these days."

He said that she is likely to make her next start in the Ticonderoga Stakes on Showcase Day at Belmont Park Oct. 20, a race she won last year, adding that he expects to run her in open company again next year.

"If you look at her form," he said, "she's beaten a lot of really good fillies, and she's lost to grade 1 fillies. I think she deserves the chance next year to go in open company."

“She’s won open company races along with New York-bred races, and New York-bred company is very tough these days.”

BACK IN 'BLACK'

Ivery Sisters Racing's Brian Ivery couldn't contain his delight when reached by phone after his longshot Black Tide won the $128,813 Ashley T. Cole Stakes, getting not only his first win, but also his first finish in the top three this year.

The 6-year-old gelding led every step of the nine furlongs, through early fractions of :23.92 and :47.81, holding his 10 rivals at bay by as many as 4½ lengths in the early going. Heading to the wire, the field began to come to him, but Black Tide held them off to win by 1¼ lengths at 28-1 under jockey José Lezcano.

"I liked that the speed on the grass was kind of holding today," said Lezcano, "and I wanted to be there. He broke good and put me there. I got very good fractions, and when I asked him, he clearly responded and went on. From the three-eighths to the wire, I felt really confident. I just had to ask a little bit and he was gone."

"(Trainer) Dave (Cannizzo) and I have been trying to get him back," said Ivery. "It's been frustrating."

Black Tide was making his first attempt at nine furlongs, and Ivery and Cannizzo were in agreement it was time to stretch him out a bit to see whether he could regain his earlier form.

"Let's just turn him loose," Ivery

“Black Tide bails me out. He’s done it before...He’s so special to Dave (Cannizzo) and me, and he’s always been so good to us.”

— Brian Ivery

said he told the trainer. “Let’s get him to go back to what made him what he was.”

Ivery and Cannizzo claimed Black Tide, a son of New York stallion Hold Me Back, who stands at Irish Hill Century Farm, in November 2016 for $35,000. Claimed by trainer David Jacobson three starts later, Ivery and Cannizzo reclaimed Black Tide for $25,000 in February 2017.

The dark bay gelding was bred by Richard Powell and Dr. Joe Orlick’s Snow Lantern Thoroughbreds and sold at the 2013 Ocala Breeders’ Sales’ August yearling auction for $30,000 to Thoroughbred Management. At the OBS April sale of 2-year-olds the following year, McMahon and Hill Bloodstock, agent, purchased him for $50,000.

A notoriously quirky horse, Black Tide didn’t take well to Saratoga; he was anxious in his stall, and in two 2018 starts there finished fifth and seventh. The incessant rain didn’t help; as Ivery put it, the gelding likes it when the turf is “like a highway.”

And while the turf for the Ashley T. Cole was labeled “good,” Cannizzo said despite a good deal of recent rain, the surface had less give in it than he had expected.

The win capped a successful few days for Ivery and Cannizzo, who had two second-place finishes and two wins in four days.

“It’s good to get him back in New York-bred stakes,” said Ivery. “The open allowance races and the stakes were brutal,” a reference to the quality of the competition Black Tide has faced.

The weekend ended a period of futility that had Ivery second-guessing his involvement in the sport, catapulting him into high spirits.

“Black Tide bails me out,” he said. “He’s done it before. I ask myself, ‘What am I doing?’ The bills keep coming; this is crazy. And then he does it again. He’s so special to Dave and me, and he’s always been so good to us.” 🐾
