Save the Date and Make Your Voice Heard

IN THE COMING WEEKS the New York Thoroughbred Breeding and Development Fund (the Fund) will host two public forums for the breeding industry, one in Saratoga Springs and one at Belmont Park. The aim is to elicit feedback from a broad spectrum of program participants about New York awards incentives and program rules.

Over the years, one constant for the Fund board has been engaging in dialogue with stakeholders. It is not unusual either for program participants' feedback to spark spirited discussion at board meetings. That said, stakeholders do not, as a rule, reach out to the Fund board to talk about what aspects of the program they support or think are working well. Generally, the people who speak out are advocating for various program tweaks. Moreover, the Fund has come to realize that most input comes from a relatively small group of voices.

The upshot is that, in order to serve all its stakeholders, the Fund board—on which I am the NYTB appointee—decided to create opportunities this spring for a greater number of interested parties to voice their opinions.

At this upcoming pair of town hall-style meetings, the Fund hopes to hear from a wide range of program participants. Issues likely to be covered include the structuring and percentages of the categories of awards (breeder, stallion owner, owner), the status of New York's stallion roster, and rules covering mare residency and breed-back. You can see a preview of some prospective topics by taking the Fund's brief online survey at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/FQ959M7>.

The first public forum will take place May 12 at the Fasig-Tipton Humphrey S. Finney Pavilion in Saratoga Springs. The second will be June 2 at Belmont Park. Both meetings will begin at 10 a.m. and light refreshments will be provided.

I would like to assure program participants that no program changes are in the works. These forums and the Fund survey are simply part of a fact-finding mission so that the Fund board can get a clearer idea of the needs, opinions, and suggestions of a broad cross-section of constituents. That said, the incentive program affects the lives and businesses of all, so I believe all participants should listen to what fellow stakeholders are thinking and make their views known.

I strongly urge you to attend one or both meetings to listen and make your voice heard. I hope for a good turnout at both events and look forward to a lively and informative exchange of ideas. 🐾

No matter how you slice it . . .
it's all about the numbers.

DERBY PLAYER

Richard Leahy-bred Audible headed toward Churchill Downs

BY ERIC MITCHELL AND EVAN HAMMONDS

MOVING FORWARD off his open-lengths score in the Feb. 3 Holy Bull Stakes (G2), New York-bred Audible stamped himself a major player for the May 5 Kentucky Derby Presented by Woodford Reserve (G1) with a three-length victory March 31 in Gulfstream Park's Xpressbet Florida Derby (G1).

A week later the Todd Pletcher-trained Audible closed at 7-1 in the final Kentucky Derby Future Wager pool that closed April 8. Handicappers peg him as the third choice behind Justify at 3-1 and Mendelssohn at 5-1. Last year's champion juvenile male, Good Magic, and two-time grade 1 winner Bolt d'Oro were both 9-1 in the pool.

Audible races for China Horse Club, Head of Plains Partners, Starlight Racing, and WinStar Farm. A win in the Derby would stand him alongside WinStar-bred Funny Cide, the only

New York-bred to win the Derby in 143 runnings.

Bred by Richard Leahy (Oak Bluff Stables), Audible sold as a yearling for $175,000 at the 2016 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale of preferred New York-bred yearlings to 4H, then was a $500,000 purchase by China Horse Club and WinStar Farm from Crupi's New Castle Farm at last year's Fasig-Tipton Florida select 2-year-old sale.

New York-bred Audible, by Into Mischief, is one of the favorites for the May 5 Kentucky Derby

Leahy's involvement with the Derby contender goes back to the colt's second dam, Fahamore.

The daughter of Gulch was part of the partnership group racing as Waterville Lake Stable, and Leahy was a member. She made only one start and later Leahy bought her for himself for $37,000 at the 2003 Keeneland November sale.

The mare went on to produce four winners, including multiple stakes winner and graded-placed Akilina, who is the dam of graded-placed stakes winner Governor Malibu and grade 1-placed stakes winner Rieno Tesoro; stakes-placed Kitty Panda; and winner Blue Devil Bel, who is the dam of Audible.

"The three half sisters have been similar in many ways, in looks and ability," said Leahy, a resident of Westchester County, N.Y., and a founding principal of the Episteme Capital investment company. "It is fun to see that competitive desire. In Blue Devil Bel and her son Audible, they seem to have very similar personalities."

Leahy said Blue Devil Bel's race record—7-4-1 in 20 starts—does not accurately reflect the ability she possessed because she had a minor injury after her third race, which was not severe enough to prevent her from racing but compromised her ability to excel in top company.

"When I saw Blue Devil Bel's first three races, they were very exciting. She was on a path to be a stakes winner," Leahy recalled. "Unfortunately, she got a minor injury that prevented her from competing at the top level. But she had the looks, the performance, and her pedigree."

Leahy's belief in Blue Devil Bel's potential as a broodmare extends from a key reason he took a chance on Fahamore, a granddaughter of Classy Cathy (by Private Account), who won the Alabama Stakes, Ashland Stakes, and Gazelle Handicap—all grade 1 races. Classy Cathy is also the second dam of the late promising sire Noble Causeway, who finished second in the Florida Derby.

"It is a very strong family, and I always thought Blue Devil Bel was talented and probably have the strongest opinion on that among all my advisers," Leahy continued. "To have the affirmation of her genes with Audible gives me great pleasure."

Leahy's team includes trainer Christophe Clement, whom Oak Bluff and Waterville Lake have been using as their primary trainer since the mid-1990s; Dr. Doug Koch, a former racetrack vet and breeder who boards and foals out all of Leahy's mares in New York at Berkshire Stud near Pine Plains; Don Robinson, the owner of Winter Quarter Farm, who handles the breeding of the mares in Kentucky and handles Oak Bluff's consignments at the sales; bloodstock agent John Donaldson, whom Leahy said has an exceptionally good eye for stallions; and Equix Biomechanics, which provides the objective analysis Leahy devours.

As a general rule, Leahy sells the colts his mares produce and keeps the fillies. His broodmare band now includes Fahamore and three of her daughters, and a winning daughter of Street Sense named Savvy Sassy (bred in partnership with Clement). He also owns several fillies that have their racing and breeding careers ahead of them: a Declaration of War—Fahamore yearling; an Uncle Mo—Akilina yearling; a 3-year-old named Peril, who is a daughter of Ghostzapper out of Akilina; and a yearling filly by Freud out of a mare Leahy just sold named Lady Renaissance. Previously co-owned by Leahy and Clement, Lady Renaissance had her own important family update when her son Therapist, by Freud, was named champion New York-bred 2-year-old male April 9. Undefeated at 2, Therapist won the one-mile Cutler Bay Stakes at Gulfstream Park in his second outing at 3.

"I have been extremely fortunate and have had bad luck, too, but I don't know that it gets much better than the weekend when I had Therapist and Audible both running at Gulfstream Park, and both won important races at their level," Leahy said.

"It is fun to watch because I am so involved in the family. This is my foundation family, and now I have a second daughter to produce a superior runner," he said. "I have the broodmares, and I also have the bench that is coming along as well." 🐾

Swing and Sway at Home in Hot Springs

Swing and Sway

New York-breds have proved themselves able to win at racing venues anywhere. For New York-bred Swing and Sway, her place in the sun is Oaklawn Park in Hot Springs, Ark. The daughter of Macleans Music, bred by Canyon Lakes Thoroughbreds, won the $147,000 Carousel Stakes April 6, marking her second win in four starts at Oaklawn's boutique meet.

Including a score in the $125,000 American Beauty Stakes Jan. 27 and a third-place finish March 3 in the $125,000 Spring Fever Stakes, Swing and Sway has posted a 4-1-1 mark in seven starts at the track, earning $288,600 of her career $345,540 there.

Swing and Sway races for Westrock Stables and is trained by Ron Moquett. Foaled at Keane Stud near Amenia, Swing and Sway is out of the Gilded Time mare Placerita, and is a half sister to graded stakes winner Sticksstatelydude (by First Dude), and multiple stakes winner Saturday Nite Ride (by Flower Alley). At age 21, Placerita delivered a filly by Not This Time earlier this year.

Swing and Sway originally sold for $50,000 as a short yearling at the 2015 Keeneland January mixed sale, going to Walter Bloodstock. Purchased by Woodford Sales for $117,000 at the Fasig-Tipton New York-bred preferred yearling sale in Saratoga in 2016, she posted a co-bullet :9½ breeze in the under-tack show at the Ocala Breeders' Sales' March sale of 2-year-olds, where Westrock Stables bought her for $185,000. 🐾

2018 LEADING SIRES IN NEW YORK

For stallions that stand, will stand, or stood (deceased) in New York (stallions that are dead or exported prior to 2014 are excluded), and have runners in North America. Listed below are all available statistics for the Northern Hemisphere through April 22, 2018. As supplied to Blood-Horse by The Jockey Club Information Systems Inc., include adjusted money from Japan, Hong Kong, and Singapore. Adjusted earnings are put on par with average North American earnings from the previous year. For example, the average North American purse in 2017 is $22,593 or 47% of the 2017 average purse in Japan. To put earnings on par, all Japanese progeny earnings are multiplied by 47% before being credited to a sire's progeny earnings. Hong Kong earnings are adjusted by 15%; Singapore by 68%. Current year stakes winners include all Northern Hemisphere black-type stakes results from all available countries. *Fool counts include Southern Hemisphere. Cumulative stakes winners include all countries.

AVERAGE-EARNINGS INDEX and COMPARABLE INDEX: Lifetime AVERAGE-EARNINGS INDEX indicates how much purse money the progeny of one sire has earned in relation to the average earnings of all runners in the same years; average earnings of all runners in any year is represented by an index of 1.00; COMPARABLE INDEX indicates the average earnings of progeny produced from mares bred to one sire, when these same mares were bred to other sires. Only 32% of all sires have a lifetime AVERAGE-EARNINGS INDEX higher than their mares' COMPARABLE INDEX.

FASIG-TIPTON PHOTOS

New York-bred juvenile brings seven figures at Fasig-Tipton Florida's Gulfstream sale

High Reward

BY TERESA GENARO

EVERY AUGUST IN SARATOGA SPRINGS, Fasig-Tipton dedicates two nights to selling preferred New York-breds. While that sale might lack the firepower and party atmosphere that characterize the select sale, its profile—and the sale prices—have steadily risen over the last five years, as the idea of buying a grade 1-winning New York-bred has become almost commonplace.

However, it was nearly 1,500 miles south of Saratoga at Florida's Gulfstream Park that Fasig-Tipton offered a New York-bred that set a record, bringing $1 million and selling to international racing powerhouse M.V. Magnier with a sales receipt signed by trainer Todd Pletcher.

By Scat Daddy out of the New York-bred mare Risky Rachel (by Limehouse), the colt was bred by Sanford Bacon and consigned by Steve Venosa's SGV Thoroughbreds.

"It was really neat," said Venosa of setting the record sale price for a New York-bred. "Going into the sale, we were very excited about bringing him over there. We had a great team of people at SGV that worked with them, and we couldn't have done it without them."

Bacon's breeding operation is small, with less than a handful of broodmares, and he became a breeder rather reluctantly, after a conversation with some friends at morning workouts at Belmont Park.

“‘You’re going shopping,’ he said to me,” recalled Bacon, who as a young teenager lied about his age so that he could gallop horses at the track. “‘$45,000, and she’ll be your foundation mare.’

“‘Foundation mare?’ I said. ‘I just want them to run.’

“He told me to shut up and go shopping, so I did.”

Bacon bought a mare by Sweet Candy out of the Our Native mare Promenade; named Lolli Lucka Lolli, in 1992 she produced graded stakes winner Dancin Renee (by Distinctive Pro), who ended her career with a seven-race win streak and a record of 14 wins and five thirds in 21 races, for earnings of $490,258.

From her eight foals, six made it to the races, five won. By far the best of the winners is multiple stakes winner Risky Rachel, who raced from ages 2 to 8, compiling a record of 9-5-3 from 27 starts and earnings just shy of $500,000.

For the last several years the 90-year-old Bacon has worked with Venosa, who advises the owner on breeding—though according to Bacon, Venosa gets all the credit for the $1 million colt.

“Steve’s the one who chose Scat Daddy,” said Bacon. “I had nothing to do “Physically, I thought that he was probably the best colt on the grounds. He’s from the last crop of Scat Daddy, and his page shows some depth in pedigree.”

with it, except paying the bill.”

Risky Rachel’s first foal, the colt was raised at Venosa’s Florida facility, and Venosa chose the Gulfstream Sale as the venue at which he thought the colt would be most attractive.

“I spoke to Mr. Bacon after we bred the horse,” he said, “and we targeted that sale from the beginning. We thought that if we could get him to a 2-year-old sale, he’d probably do best.

“Physically, I thought that he was probably the best colt on the grounds,” Venosa continued. “He’s from the last crop of Scat Daddy, and his page shows some depth in pedigree. His mother could really run.”

While the team wasn’t sure what to expect when the horse went through the ring, they knew he’d attracted interest from Pletcher, who had trained Scat Daddy to multiple graded stakes wins, including the grade 1 Florida Derby at Gulfstream.

“Any time you bring a horse to the sale, you hope to get him sold,” said Venosa. “Expecting to bring $1 million is a little unreal, but we’re very, very pleased with what he brought.”

“Steve got me one hell of a price,” said Bacon. “He’s created another tax problem for me.”

“He’s by a world-class stallion, one of my all-time favorites,” said Pletcher. “It’s great to see him have so much success, and a great loss to the industry that he’s gone too soon.

“We had this horse on our radar for a while. He’s a beautiful horse, and he came in here and had a super breeze and came out of it in good order.”

On the advice of Venosa, Bacon bred Risky Rachel to Into Mischief in 2016, and her yearling filly “is probably going to be the sale-topper at the Saratoga summer New York-bred sale,” said the optimistic breeder. “People are already offering me money for her.”

Risky Rachel has foaled all three of her offspring in New York, and while she’s off to a brilliant start as a broodmare, Venosa doesn’t think that the Florida sale will have a ripple effect on other sales.

“I’d like to say yes, it will, but at the end of the day, where a horse is born and reared isn’t that important,” he said.

“But,” he added, “It’s always nice to support the New York-bred program.” 🐾

Agent Steve Venosa wanted to target the colt to the 2-year-old market

Mind Your Biscuits, Bromans repeat as New York-bred Horse of the Year, state's top breeders, respectively

A LITTLE MORE THAN A WEEK after Mind Your Biscuits thrilled the racing world with his late rally to win his second Dubai Golden Shaheen Sponsored by Gulf News (G1) at Meydan in Dubai, the 5-year-old son of Posse was honored as a repeat winner as New York-bred Horse of the Year.

NYTB's awards banquet was held April 9, 2018 at the Saratoga National Golf Club in Saratoga Springs. Sponsored by the New York State Thoroughbred Breeding and Development Fund, the event was emceed by Richard Migliore, a former leading New York jockey and a racing analyst for XBTB.

Mind Your Biscuits was also voted champion male sprinter and champion state-bred older dirt male. Bred by Jumping Jack Racing, Mind Your Biscuits won the Golden Shaheen, and the Belmont Sprint Stakes (G2) in 2017. His win March 31 at Meydan allowed him to become the richest New York-bred in history with $3,719,286 in earnings.

Chad Summers, who trains Mind Your Biscuits, is also a co-owner in a partnership that consists of Head of Plains, J Stables, Michael Summers, Dan Summers and Michael Kisber.

Chester and Mary Broman were named the state's outstanding breeders for the second straight year and fifth time overall.

The Bromans, whose names are synonymous with New York breeding and racing success, won seven stakes races in 2017 with their homebreds, led by Bar of Gold who ran a huge race at 66-1 to win the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint (G1) at Del Mar. Highway Star, another Broman standout, took the Ruffian Stakes (G2), Gallant Bloom Handicap (G2), and grade 3 Distaff. Haul Anchor and Held Accountable also picked up stakes victories last year. In all, the Bromans won 71 races with their New York-breds and earned more than $3.7 million in purses. The couple won the outstanding breeders award previously in 2004, 2011, 2014 and 2016. 🐾

MIND YOUR BISCUITS

Mind Your Biscuits winning the Belmont Sprint

ON APRIL 9 IN SARATOGA SPRINGS, 5-year-old Mind Your Biscuits was announced the New York-bred Horse of the Year for the second consecutive year. The award came two weeks after the chestnut horse won the $2 million Dubai Golden Shaheen Sponsored by Gulf News (G1), also for the second straight year.

In 2015 Mind Your Biscuits hit a different kind of two-fer; this one more ignominious: entered in the 2014 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale of preferred New York-breds and in the Ocala Breeders' Sales' April sale of 2-year-olds in training the following spring, he was an RNA at both, bringing final bids of $47,000, the price that Machmer Hall had paid for him as a weanling at the 2014 Keeneland January horses of all ages sale.

By Posse, then standing in New York, out of the Toccet mare Jazzmane, Mind Your Biscuits was bred by Samantha Will Baccari's Jumping Jack Racing. Dr. Steve Allday advised her on the breeding; eight months after foaling the horse that has now earned $3.7 million, Jazzmane, purchased by Baccari sight unseen, based solely on pedigree, was sold for $11,000 at the Keeneland November sale of breeding stock.

"She'd had three foals that were just OK," said Baccari. "They didn't have the best hind leg, and commercially, a horse without a good hind leg is hard to sell."

Jazzmane also didn't particularly take to mothering, kicking and abandoning her foals, so at the time the decision to sell made sense. In retrospect, Baccari is philosophical.

“We all miss on horses like that,” she said.

After failing to meet his reserve at the New York sale, Mind Your Biscuits was purchased by a partnership that included Chad Summers; his brother Dan, father Scott, and then-wife Hope; and Susan Montanye of Ocala’s SBM Training and Sales, with Machmer Mall retaining a share. Their plan was to pinhook him as a 2-year-old, but when he failed to sell in Ocala, Chad Summers had a change of heart.

“When I watched him at Susan’s farm when he was a yearling, I fell head over heels in love with him,” he said. “I offered to buy out Susan and (Machmer Hall’s) Carrie (Brogden).”

After some negotiating Summers paid his partners $30,000; his family stayed in, and J Stables also purchased a share. Then the adventure began.

Trained in New York by Roderick Rodriguez and later Robert Falcone Jr., Mind Your Biscuits compiled a record of 4-5-2 in 13 stats in his first two years on the track, earning just under $800,000. By January 2017, Summers himself took over the horse’s training, and Sol Kumin’s Head of Plains Partners and Michael Kisber had bought into the partnership. Mind Your Biscuits had notched two grade 1 wins in 2016, the Ketel One King’s Bishop Stakes at Saratoga and the Malibu Stakes at Santa Anita, leading to New York-bred Horse of the Year honors, and Summers had set his sights on Dubai.

Mind Your Biscuit’s 2017 campaign began at Gulfstream Park with a second-place finish in the Gulfstream Park Sprint Stakes (G3). After his win in the Golden Shaheen in March, he won the Belmont Sprint Championship Stakes (G2), finished third in the TwinSpires Breeders’ Cup Sprint (G1) at Del Mar, and second in the Cigar Mile Handicap Presented by NYRA Bets (both G1). His only off-the-board finish was a sixth-place finish in the Forego Stakes (G1) at Saratoga, a loss that voters apparently discounted in selecting him New York-bred Horse of the Year for the second time.

“It’s crazy what he’s done. I feel like he’s not been given a ton of respect and that’s kind of disappointing,” said Baccari. “Horses are unique athletes and individuals, and a good horse like him has heart, and that’s something you can’t measure.”

Now the highest-earning New York-bred runner, having banked $3.7 million, Mind Your Biscuits is a grade 1 winner at 3, 4, and 5, and Summers hopes to add to that total this year. His next target is the Runhappy Metropolitan Handicap (G1) at Belmont Park June 9, and Summers has an eye on repeat trips to the Breeders’ Cup and the Cigar Mile.

“I really want to show everybody he can get a mile and probably further,” said Summers.

The summer campaign is still a question mark; the horse is just one for five at Saratoga, but Summers is considering running him there again.

“I’d love the opportunity to win again at Saratoga,” he said. “He represents the state of New York, and it would be a big deal for his legacy.”

“We wave that New York-bred flag,” he continued. “With what the New York program has become, New York-breds can compete with anybody on any stage, in the United States and internationally.”

BAR OF GOLD

Champion Female Sprinter, Champion Older Dirt Female

RICK SAMUELS

Bar of Gold at the Breeders' Cup at Del Mar

BAR OF GOLD'S 2017 CAMPAIGN was an inverse roller-coaster...with the biggest thrill coming at the end. It started off a little lackluster with five consecutive defeats while the New York-bred tested open, graded company twice. Not until the Saratoga stand in late August did the daughter of Medaglia d'Oro get to the winner's circle after the Yaddo Stakes for state-breds.

Obviously talented, based off her placing in the 2015 Longines Test Stakes (G1), trainer John Kimmel and Chester and Mary Broman pressed on, but a disappointing effort in the slop at Keeneland as the favorite in the Juddmonte Spinster Stakes (G1) might have been her finale. However, she returned to New York, continued to move forward, and at the last minute was shipped to Del Mar, not for the Longines Breeders' Cup Distaff (G1) but rather the seven-furlong Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint (G1), a distance she hadn't tried since June 2016.

Racing with stablemate Highway Star in the seven-furlong event, she rallied from 13th under Irad Ortiz Jr. to spring a remarkable upset at 66-1.

The win was a third for a New York-bred in the Breeders' Cup World Championships, as she joins London Bridge, winner of the 2013 Breeders' Cup Marathon (G2), and DayattheSpa, winner of the 2014 Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf (G1T).

Bar of Gold is the first foal out of the Bromans' homebred stakes winner Khancord Kid (by Lemon Drop Kid). Khancord Kid delivered a colt by American Pharoah April 28, 2017, and is back in foal to Medaglia d'Oro for 2018.

Bar of Gold has been retired after racking up a 7-6-4 slate in 25 starts and earning $1,551,000. 🏆

CHESTER AND MARY BROMAN

Breeder of the Year

SOME THINGS NEVER GET OLD...like Chester and Mary Broman's being named Breeders of the Year in New York. The 2017 title is the fifth for the power couple from Chestertown Farm, adding to ones earned in 2004, 2011, 2014, and 2016.

This year's stars were Bar of Gold, winner of the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint (G1) at Del Mar and out of the Broman-bred stakes-winning Khancord Kid; and Highway Star. New York-bred Highway Star, a three-time graded winner in 2017, actually was a lower price (18-1 to 66-1) than Bar of Gold in the Breeders' Cup event.

The Bromans also bred and raced Haul Anchor, winner of the Gander Stakes for state-breds, along with Held Accountable, winner of the Joseph A. Gimma Stakes at Belmont Park.

Chester Broman, from Pinelawn, N.Y., became the owner, president, and CEO of Clifford Broman & Sons, a general contracting corporation in West Babylon that was established in 1938. He was appointed to the New York Racing Association board of trustees in 1998 and has served multiple terms on the board of directors for the New York Thoroughbred Breeders, currently serving as Director Emeritus. 🏆

RICHARD LEAHY'S OAK BLUFF STABLES' Therapist earned his championship title on the turf and proved he could succeed against open company. Leahy stuck to his guns on this one, not letting him go when he RNA'd at $8,000 at the 2016 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale of preferred New York-bred yearlings. On course in 2017, the son of Freud rallied from eighth to break his maiden in his debut July 2 at Belmont Park. In mid-September he was shipped to Laurel where he scored in the six-furlong Laurel Futurity, then topped Belmont's Awad Stakes going a mile in late October to polish off an unbeaten season, earning $157,200. He is grade 3-placed in 2018. It's interesting the Leahy-bred Audible, also a New York-bred from the 2015 crop, has shown to be top notch as well, as he won the March 31 Xpressbet.com Florida Derby (G1). 🐾

TWISTED TOM

Champion 3-Year-Old Male

EXCEPT FOR A PUNCHER'S CHANCE run at the Belmont Stakes presented by NYRABets (G1) in June, Twisted Tom ran the table in 2017, winning six times, five times in stakes company. For Gary Biszantz' Cobra Farm and R R Partners, the son of Creative Cause won Laurel Park's Private Terms and Federico Tesio stakes. With Head of Plains Partners thrown into the mix, he tore through the New York-bred ranks with successive wins in the New York Derby, Albany Stakes, and the $300,000 Empire Classic Handicap. Twisted Tom is the pride of his breeders' operation at Stepwise Farm, as Drs. William Wilmot and Joan Taylor purchased second dam Miss Turlington back in 1994. 🐾

NEW YEAR'S DAY IS AS GOOD A DAY as any to start a successful campaign. John and Sandy Crowe's Empire Equines' homebred Fifty Five topped open allowance optional claiming company at Gulfstream Jan. 1 and didn't take long to add the March 11 Florida Oaks (G3T) to her resume. Sold after that race to Peter Brant, and moving from the barn of Tom Bush to Chad Brown, Fifty Five battled open stakes foes throughout the summer, then capped off the season with a win in Belmont Park's Ticonderoga Stakes on Showcase Day Oct. 21. With all eight of her 2017 starts coming on turf, she earned $320,600, and is back in New York training toward her 2018 debut. 🐾

A FOUR-TIME OPEN STAKES WINNER in 2017, Disco Partner almost made it five in his finale, a thrilling come-from-behind effort in the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (G1T) at Del Mar that fell a half-length shy of Stormy Liberal and Richards Boy. Sharp from his seasonal debut—a win in Belmont's Elusive Quality Stakes—through wins in the Jaipur Invitational Stakes (G3T; with a world record 1:05.67 for six furlongs on turf) and rich Belmont Turf Sprint Invitational Stakes, Disco Partner earned $547,000 on the season. By year's end she had engaged in grade 1 competition at Woodbine and had done well to run third against an international cast in the E.P. Taylor Stakes (G1T). JAZZMANE

Broodmare of the Year

GOOD THINGS COME IN TWOS. Just as Mind Your Biscuits was named New York-bred Horse of the Year for a second consecutive year, his dam, Jazzmane, has earned her second title.

Bred in Kentucky by Stonyfield Farm, Jazzmane (Tocet—Alljazz, by Stop the Music) was unraced, but obviously found her niche in the breeding shed. Jazzmane was owned by Samantha Will, who bred Mind Your Biscuits under the Jumping Jack Racing name. Will is the wife of Chris Baccari of Baccari Bloodstock. Mind Your Biscuits, by Posse (a four-time leading sire in New York), was her third foal.

More often than not in the Thoroughbred business, the best can get away. Baccari Bloodstock sold Jazzmane during the 2013 Keeneland November breeding stock sale. The buyer was K.O.I.D., an outfit from South Korea, where she has delivered foals by North American-bred sires Posse, Officer, Tiz Wonderful, and Chapel Royal.

Will was able to find—and buy—Jazzmane's half sister, Daryanna, by Friends Lake 🐾

LINDA RICE

Trainer of the Year

LYDIA A. WILLIAMS

SUCCESSFUL TRAINER LINDA RICE earned Trainer of the Year title for 2017 based on the strength of 72 wins with New York-bred horses—including three stakes scores—and more than $3.5 million in New York-bred earnings. It was not her first rodeo: the trainer title is her sixth, with her other titles coming in 2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, and 2015.

She trained Lady Sheila Stable's Holiday Disguise (bred by Dr. William Wilmot and Dr. Joan Taylor) to victory in Belmont Park's Bouwerie Stakes and Hot City Girl, winner of Aqueduct's Broadway Stakes. The latter was bred by Eklektikos Stable. Her other New York-bred score came in the grade 3 Saranac Stakes at Saratoga with Stonewall Farm-bred Voodoo Song. 🐾

IRAD ORTIZ JR.

Jockey of the Year

IRAD ORTIZ JR. FINISHED 2017 atop the New York-bred jockey rankings with 139 New York-bred wins, 11 stakes scores, and more than $8.7 million in state-bred earnings. Irad won the award in 2013 and 2016, while his younger brother, Jose, was named Jockey of the Year in 2014 and 2015. Jose wound up the nation's leading rider by purse earnings, with more than $27.3 million, while Irad finished third with more than $22.9 million in earnings. Multiple Eclipse Award winner Javier Castellano was second in earnings, and Hall of Fame rider John Velazquez was fourth, giving New York-based riders a national superfecta. 🐾

Baby Boss upsets the Park Avenue at 23-1

Stallion series swept by Englehart-trained sophomores

Two by 3-Year-olds

BY PAUL VOLPONI

THE NEW YORK STALLION SERIES races April 21-22 at Aqueduct turned out to be a real family affair—not among Thoroughbreds sired by the same stallion, but by a pair of trainers one sired by the other.

Trainer Jeremiah Englehart, who is based at Finger Lakes, continues to make his strong presence felt on the racing scene downstate as well.

In the $100,000 Park Avenue Division April 21, Englehart scored a stunning upset with Neal Allread's 3-year-old filly Baby Boss (by Frost Giant) at 23-1.

"Travis (Durr) and I purchased (Baby Boss) as a yearling," Englehart said. "She didn't grow as much as we thought she would, but she's still a decent size. She has that look about her, though—that look of a racehorse. And she also has a really good mind."

Baby Boss broke her maiden Jan. 27 at the $40,000 claiming mark after stumbling at the break, then missed by a neck in a state-bred allowance optional claiming race March 11.

In the Park Avenue, Englehart and jockey Manny Franco hadn't planned on going to the lead with Baby Boss, who was cutting back to 6½ furlongs after traveling a mile in her previous start. But when Twin Creeks Racing Stables' homebred Pure Silver, 2017's New York-bred juvenile filly champion, didn't break particularly well, Franco put Baby Boss on the lead and the pair was never headed.

"I give Manny the credit for winning this race; for being so aggressive early on," said Englehart.

After racing the opening half-mile in :46.28, Baby Boss turned for home with a slight advantage, traveling smoothly along the rail in the field of nine 3-year-old fillies.

Directly to Baby Boss' outside raced a duo of onrushing rivals that appeared to be gathering serious momentum—Richard Greeley's My Roxy Girl and Ben Mondello's Orchid Party, from the barn of trainer Rudy Rodriguez, who had saddled the filly to an allowance optional claiming victory just three days before (mimicking the quick turnarounds of his mentor, Richard Dutrow Jr.).

With urging from Franco in the upper-stretch, however, Baby Boss found another gear and spurted clear, holding sway by a length in 1:16.85.

"I knew they were going to have to run to catch me. I felt pressure a little bit, but I knew I had horse left under me," said Franco.

Bred by Eric Bishop and acquired by Allread at the 2017 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-year-old sale for $23,000, Baby Boss, who is out of Wild in Montana, by Yankee Victor, has won two of four starts and has earned $96,380.

My Roxy Girl, trained by Mitchell Friedman, was second with Orchid Party coming home third.

Like Son, Like Father

The following day in the $100,000 Times Square Division for males, trainer Chris Englehart, the father of Jeremiah Englehart, equaled his son's success by saddling My Purple Haze Stables' Retonova to a convincing 2¾-length victory.

"My son's getting harder and harder to keep up with," said Chris Englehart.

As the 3-year-olds loaded into the his rider keeping him on task to the wire. The time for the 6½-furlong trip was 1:16.92.

"He ran such a great race for me, and after I won the first time with him (March 17 at Aqueduct), I called my gate, the co-favorite, Sunrise Stables' homebred True Giant (by Frost Giant) threw a minor tantrum, which left jockey Irad Ortiz, who needed to dismount, limping. True Giant thus became a vet scratch, changing the complexion of the race and making Retonova odds-on in the shortened field of five.

Retonova, racing for My Purple Haze Stables, wins the Times Square

The gelded son of Boys At Tosconova, out of Jb's Golden Regret, by Banker's Gold, rated off a quick and contested opening quarter-mile of :22.77 from fourth-position in the middle of the track while traveling under a relaxed hold from jockey Trevor McCarthy.

Midway on the far turn, Retonova circled the front-runners, rolling four-wide into the lane.

Under McCarthy's steady left-handed encouragement, Retonova pulled clear of his rivals with a furlong remaining, agent and said, 'Whatever you do, don't let him get away.' He was pretty impressive today," said Trevor McCarthy. "Being on the outside and (True Giant) scratching was an advantage."

Bred by Barry Ostrager of Questroyal Stud North, Retonova is undefeated in two career starts with earnings of $93,000.

"This one took a while to come around mentally, but he's grown into a nice, leggy runner. He's certainly going to stretch out in the future," said Englehart.

Alex Kazdan's Spectacular Kid (by Mission Impazible), from the barn of trainer Carlos Martin, rallied through the stretch for second. Ryan Racing's homebred Aqua Bel Sar (by Trinniberg), named for the three racetracks on the NYRA circuit, finished third. 🐾

The accompanying list reports sires of New York-bred winners in 2018, 3-year-olds and upward, of all recent North American races, except straight claiming races. The second list reports sires of all New York-bred juvenile winners in the same time period. The lists are presented alphabetically by sire followed by the winners dam. The name of the winner is in lightface capital letters (boldface capital letters if the win came in a stakes race), followed in parentheses by the number of current-year starters in North America for the sire and the sire's total number of individual winners in 2018, regardless of state where bred. Followed by the winners sex; age; race track; class of the race; date of the race; distance of the race, expressed in furlongs and fractions of furlongs; time of the race; first-place money earned by the winner. Abbreviations used for the class of race are similar to those used by Equibase: Alw—allowance; Hcp—overnight handicap; names of stakes race are spelled out, with the grade of the race, when applicable, in parentheses.
